Cecilia Reclaimed Susan C. Cook, 1994 Cecilia a fifteenth century Christian martyr has long been considered the patron saint of music In this pathbreaking volume ten of the best known scholars in the newly emerging field of feminist musicology explore both how gender has helped shape genres and works of music and how music has contributed to prevailing notions of gender The musical subjects include concert music both instrumental and vocal and the vernacular genres of ballads salon music and contemporary African American rap The essays raise issues not only of gender but also of race and class moving among musical practices of the courtly ruling class and the elite discourse of the twentieth century modernist movement to practices surrounding marginal girls in Renaissance Venice and the largely white middle class experiences of magazine and balladry The Works of the British Poets John Aikin, 1866 America Bewitched Owen Davies, 2013-02-21 The first major history of witchcraft in America from the Salem witch trials of 1692 to the present day Select Works of the British Poets, with ... prefaces by Dr. Aikin John AIKIN (M.D.), 1831 Select Works of the British Poets, with Biographical and Critical Prefaces by Dr. Aikin John AIKIN (M.D.), 1820 Select Works of the British Poets, in a Chronological Series from Ben Jonson to Beattie with Biographical and Critical Notices John Aikin, 1846 Select Works of the British Poets, in a Chronological Series from Ben Jonson to Beattie John Aikin, 1838 Hydrofeminist Thinking With Oceans Tamara Shefer, Vivienne Bozalek, Nike Romano, 2023-12-19 Hydrofeminist Thinking with Oceans brings together authors who are thinking in with and through the spaces of oceans and beaches in South African contexts to make alternative knowledges towards a justice to come and flourishing at a planetary level Primary scholarly locations for this work include feminist new materialist and post humanist thinking and specifically locates itself within hydrofeminist thinking Together with a foreword by Astrida Neimanis the chapters in this book explore both land and water with oceans as powerfully political spaces globally and locally entangled in the violences of settler colonialism land dispossession slavery transnational labour exploitation extractivism and omnicides South Africa is a productive space to engage in such scholarship While there is a growing body of literature that works within and across disciplines on the sea and bodies of water to think critically about the damages of centuries of colonisation and continued extractivist capitalism there remains little work that explores this burgeoning thinking in global Southern and more particularly South African contexts South African histories of colonisation slavery and more recently apartheid which are saturated in the oceans are only recently being explored through oceanic logics This volume offers valuable Southern contributions and rich situated narratives to such hydrofeminist thinking It also brings diverse and more marginal knowledges to bear on the project of generating imaginative alternatives to hegemonic colonial and patriarchal logics in the academy and elsewhere While primarily located in a South African context the volume speaks well to globalised concerns for justice and environmental challenges both in human societies and in relation to other species and planetary crises The chapters which will be of interest to scholars activists and other civil society stakeholders share inspiring rich examples of diverse scholarship activism and art in these contexts extending international scholarship that thinks in on with ocean s littoral zones and bodies of water The book offers ethico political perspectives on the role of research in ocean governance policy development and collective decision making for ecological justice This book is suitable for students and scholars of post qualitative feminist new materialist embodied arts based and hydrofeminist methods in education environmental humanities and the social sciences
