

Recognition of Current Competency (RCC) Assessment Trainee Guide

Introduction

This booklet is for people who have considerable experience and skills in a specific discipline and who want those skills and experience recognised through an existing New Zealand qualification without having to attend a course and be formally assessed over a period of time.

To be eligible you must have worked for the past 2 years in the discipline which you are seeking recognition of competence.

You will need to provide as much evidence as possible about your experience and skills and you will need to create a portfolio of documents to support your assessment.
