passionate advocate Cherie Dimaline author of The Marrow Thieves Sterritt s story is living proof of how courageous Indigenous women are Tanya Talaga author of Seven Fallen Feathers and All Our Relations Unbroken is an extraordinary work of memoir and investigative journalism focusing on missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls written by an award winning Gitxsan journalist who survived life on the streets against all odds As a Gitxsan teenager navigating life on the streets Angela Sterritt wrote in her journal to help her survive and find her place in the world Now an acclaimed journalist she writes for major news outlets to push for justice and to light a path for Indigenous women girls and survivors In her brilliant debut Sterritt shares her memoir alongside investigative reporting into cases of missing and murdered Indigenous women in Canada showing how colonialism and racism led to a society where Sterritt struggled to survive as a young person and where the lives of Indigenous women and girls are ignored and devalued Growing up Sterritt was steeped in the stories of her ancestors grandparents who carried bentwood boxes of berries hunted and trapped and later fought for rights and title to that land But as a vulnerable young woman kicked out of the family home and living on the street Sterritt inhabited places that today are infamous for being communities where women have gone missing or been murdered Vancouver s Downtown

Eastside and later on Northern BC's Highway of Tears Sterritt faced darkness she experienced violence from partners and strangers and saw friends and community members die or go missing But she navigated the street group homes and SROs to finally find her place in journalism and academic excellence at university relying entirely on her own strength resilience and creativity along with the support of her ancestors and community to find her way She could have been me Sterritt acknowledges today and her empathy for victims survivors and families drives her present day investigations into the lives of missing and murdered Indigenous women In the end Sterritt steps into a place of power demanding accountability from the media and the public exposing racism and showing that there is much work to do on the path towards understanding the truth But most importantly she proves that the strength and brilliance of Indigenous women is unbroken and that together they can build lives of joy and abundance

Yuille,2012-12-06 The New Police Officer During the past twenty years the tasks required of police officers have expanded and changed with dramatic rapidity The traditional roles of the police had been those of law enforcement and the maintenance of public order As a consequence police officers were typically large bodied males selected for their physical abilities and trained to accept orders and enforce the law Over the past two decades however the industrialized nations have placed a variety of new demands on police officers To traditional law enforcement and public order tasks have been added social work mental health duties and community relations work For example domestic disputes violence between husbands and wives lovers relatives etc have increased in frequency and severity or at least there has been a dramatic increase in reporting the occurrence of domestic violence Our societies have no formal system to deal with domestic disputes and the responsibility to do so in most countries has fallen to the police In fact in some areas as many as 60% of calls for service to the police are related to domestic disputes see the chapter in this text by Dutton As a result the police officer has had to become a skilled social worker able to intervene with sensitivity in domestic situations Alternatively in the case of West Germany the officer has had to learn to work co-operatively with social workers see the chapter by Steinhilper
