

Autobiography

My name is Michael Smith and I was born on the 30th of August, 1967 in Long Beach, California. My parents were Eddie Smith and Joan Smith. Both of my parents are deceased. My mom died at the age of 57 in 1994 from lung cancer which was the result of smoking her whole lifetime. My father died at the age of 69 in 2006 from a massive heart attack, which was also the likely result from a lifetime of smoking. Fortunately I have been smart enough to avoid that bad habit.

My early childhood was a typical middle class environment circa the 1960's. My dad worked for Simpson Buick as a parts salesman and my mom was a stay at home mother. I had a happy, normal childhood as an only child, leaving me somewhat spoiled. My mom and dad divorced when I was eight years old and both remarried within a year or so of the divorce. My dad remained married to my stepmom Bev until his death. My mom would marry two more times. My first stepdad Vince became a big part of my life and I maintained close contact with him until his death in 2006, two days after my real dad died. Yes, that was a very bad week, losing both of my dads.

Growing up with split parents was not especially difficult since each of my parents kept me out of their divorce and they got along fine at events where both of them were present. I lived with my mom until I was 16 and in high school. By my sophomore year in high school I had begun to hang around with friends that got me into a lot of trouble with a number of things including smoking pot and drinking. I was rapidly heading down a negative path, but was fortunate enough to notice it before I had done any serious damage. I moved in with my dad and changed high schools and friends.

Howe,2016-04-08 Women's life writing in general has too often been ignored dismissed or relegated to a separate category in those few studies of the genre that include it The present work addresses these issues and offers a countervailing argument that focuses on the contributions of women writers to the study of autobiography in Spanish during the early modern period There are indeed examples of autobiographical writing by women in Spain and its New World empire evident as early as the fourteenth century Memorias penned by Doña Leonor López de Córdoba and continuing through the seventeenth century Cartas of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz What sets these accounts apart the author shows are the variety of forms adopted by each woman to tell her life and the circumstances in which she adapts her narrative to satisfy the presence of male critics whether ecclesiastic or political actual or imagined who would dismiss or even alter her life story Analyzing how each of these women viewed her life and conversely how their contemporaries both male and female received and sometimes edited her account Howe reveals the tension in the texts between telling a life and telling a lie Letters from a Life Benjamin Britten,2008 Letters by the British composer to his friends family and colleagues document his life from school days to the end of World War II A Life in Letters F. Scott Fitzgerald,2010-07-06 A vibrant self portrait of an artist whose work was his life In this new collection of F Scott Fitzgerald's letters edited by leading Fitzgerald scholar and biographer Matthew J Bruccoli we see through his own words the artistic and emotional maturation of one of America's most enduring and elegant authors A Life in Letters is the most comprehensive volume of Fitzgerald's letters many of them appearing in print for the first time The fullness of the selection and the chronological arrangement make this collection the closest thing to an autobiography that Fitzgerald ever wrote While many readers are familiar with Fitzgerald's legendary jazz age social life and his friendships with Ernest Hemingway Gertrude Stein Edmund Wilson and other famous authors few are aware of his writings about his life and his views on writing Letters to his editor Maxwell Perkins illustrate the development of Fitzgerald's literary sensibility those to his friend and competitor Ernest Hemingway reveal their difficult relationship The most poignant letters here were written to his wife Zelda from the time of their courtship in Montgomery Alabama during World War I to her extended convalescence in a sanatorium near Asheville North Carolina Fitzgerald is by turns affectionate and proud in his letters to his daughter Scottie at college in the East while he was struggling in Hollywood For readers who think primarily of Fitzgerald as a hard drinking playboy for whom writing was effortless these letters show his serious painstaking concerns with creating realistic durable art Autobiography and Selected Letters Libanius,1992 Writing and Selling Your Autobiography , Gay American Autobiography David Bergman,2009 In the first anthology to survey the full range of gay men's autobiographical writing from Walt Whitman to the present Gay American Autobiography draws excerpts from letters journals oral histories memoirs and autobiographies to provide examples of the best life writing over the last century and a half Volume editor David Bergman guides the reader chronologically through selected writings that give voice to every generation of gay writers since the nineteenth century including a diverse array of American men of African European Jewish

Asian and Latino heritage Documenting a range of life experiences that encompass tattoo artists and academics composers and drag queens hustlers and clerks it contains accounts of turn of the century transvestites gay rights activists men battling AIDS and soldiers attempting to come out in the army Each selection provides important insight on the wide spectrum of ways gay men have defined and lived their lives highlighting how self awareness changes an author s experience The volume includes an introduction by Bergman and headnotes for each of the nearly forty entries Bringing many out of print and hard to find works to new readers this challenging and comprehensive anthology chronicles American gay history and life struggles over the course of the past 150 years Finalist Lambda Book Award for LGBT Anthology Lambda Literary Foundation
