

Praying for Others Lesson

Luke 6:28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

Romans 12:19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Proverbs 25: 21-22 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: For you shall heap coals of fire on his head, and the LORD shall reward you.

When we love someone, we want to pray to God to ask him to help the person with any problem that person might have. We pray for their happiness, health and success. We pray for their salvation. It is good to pray for our friends and families and to have them praying for us. When someone is not good to us, it is a lot harder to want to pray for that person. However, that is exactly what God tells us to do. Jesus said to pray for those who are mistreating you and wishing for bad things to happen to you. Jesus is warning us not to become like that person, because those actions show that the person is not right with God. Only God can change the heart of a wicked person. You must not let them lead you into sin or rob you of your peace. That does not mean you have to keep on letting that person hurt you. Instead, take the problem to the proper authorities, and pray to God to guide the authorities to handle the problem correctly. By doing that, we are showing that we trust God completely to handle the situation.

Who are some people with authority to help us with problems? (Parents, teachers, ministers, police, judges)

Who has the most authority? (God and Jesus)

What does it mean to heap coals of fire on his head? (It means the person's conscience will begin to burn so he will become ashamed of his actions and confess the truth. It does not mean that you are causing the person not to be saved. No true Christian would do anything to keep another from repenting and being saved.)

How should we pray for our enemies? Pray that the Holy Spirit would soften their hearts and change them. Pray that their hearts would be converted to hear and believe the word of God. Pray that they would make things right in their life so that Satan would no longer have dominion over them.

Does God Really Answer Our Prayers? John Christopher Mynyk,2025-07-10 Does God really answer our prayers Maybe you ve read all the Bible verses about it Maybe you ve had friends preach to you in the most charismatic way that God answers prayers but then you slip back into reality and just don t see the evidence John Mynyk has been there too and his story may be just what you need At seventeen Mynyk heard a sermon about divine appointments divinely guided gospel opportunities Having never successfully shared the gospel with anyone he prayed for a divine appointment He didn t realize what he had just set in motion that day His divine appointment would be with someone who wouldn t even be born for the next eight years See how odd situations such as a late doctoral dissertation an improper weather prediction an abnormal work contract extension a prophetic dream and even a little boy s call to nature all orchestrated this divine appointment If any one of those and other situations were even slightly different the divine appointment could never have occurred After reading this story truly ask yourself if God really does answer our prayers
