Unfathomable City A New Orleans Atlas Rebecca Solnit:

Unfathomable City Rebecca Solnit, Rebecca Snedeker, 2013-11-18 Presents twenty two color maps and accompanying essays providing details on the people ecology and culture of the city New Orleans T. R. Johnson, 2023-03-02 The neighborhoods of New Orleans have given rise to an extraordinary outpouring of important writing Over the last century and a half or so these stories and songs have given the city its singular place in the human imagination This book leads the reader along five thoroughfares that define these different parts of town Royal St Claude Esplanade Basin and St Charles to explore how the writers who have lived around them have responded in closely related ways to the environments they share On the outskirts of New Orleans today the city s precarious relation to its watery surroundings and the vexed legacies of race loom especially large But the city s literature shows us that these themes have been near to hand for New Orleans writers for several generations whether reflected through questions of masquerade dreams of escape the innocence of children or the power of money or of violence or of memory Fictionality and Multimodal Narratives Torsa Ghosal, Alison Gibbons, 2023-08 Fictionality and Multimodal Narratives interrogates the relationship of fictionality and the multimodal use of fact in modern narrative construction Ephemeral Coast: Visualizing Coastal Climate Change Celina Jeffery, 2022-08-02 Ephemeral Coast Visualizing Coastal Climate Change considers the ways that art can offer a means through which to discover analyze re imagine and re frame emotive discourses about the ecological and cultural transformations of the coastline This edited anthology takes ephemerality as its central conceptual and methodological framework and presents a series of essays that create interconnections between environmental and social considerations of the coast a succession of embodied creative practices and shifting regional geographic identities The book presents a series of specific case studies of artistic practices and strategies that seek to capture the rewriting of cartographic maps that are being reshaped by rising seas coastal flooding and catastrophic weather The essays in this edited volume engender creative strategies for understanding new and uncertain coastal ecologies and the loss expulsion or destruction of their associated cultures habitats species and ecosystems The anthology also looks at the historical mnemonic and contemporary transitional conditions of conflicted coastal spaces in which empire modernity and globalization press on coastal erosion and incursions proliferate it with trivial plastics pollution and disposable attitudes and bring vulnerable communities into uncertain futures Rebuilding New Orleans Sarah Fouts, 2025-06-24 In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina Central American and Mexican immigrants arrived in New Orleans to help clean up and rebuild When federal relief services overlooked the needs of immigrant led construction and cleanup crews as part of post Katrina mass feeding strategies street food stands and taco trucks stepped in to ensure food security for these workers Many of these food vendors settled in the city over the next decade opening restaurants and other businesses Yet in a city experiencing whitewashed redevelopment new immigrants were frequently pitted against Black poor and working class New Orleanians for access to housing and other resources During Fouts s five years as a volunteer with the

New Orleans Workers Center for Racial Justice she came to know and interview the day laborers food workers culture producers and community organizers whose stories shape this book Her work reveals how after the storm immigrant communities have culturally and politically reshaped New Orleans and its suburbs Fouts also highlights how immigrants forged multiracial solidarities to foster inclusive change at the local level By connecting migration labor and food Rebuilding New Orleans centers human experiences to illustrate how immigrant and established communities of color resisted criminalization and racial capitalism to create a more just New Orleans After Katrina Anna Hartnell,2017-01-25

Through the lens provided by the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina After Katrina argues that the city of New Orleans emerges as a key site for exploring competing narratives of US decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Deploying an interdisciplinary approach to explore cultural representations of the post storm city Anna Hartnell suggests that New Orleans has been reimagined as a laboratory for a racialized neoliberalism and as such might be seen as a terminus of the American dream This US disaster zone has unveiled a network of social and environmental crises that demonstrate that prospects of social mobility have dwindled as environmental degradation and coastal erosion emerge as major threats not just to the quality of life but to the possibility of life in coastal communities across America and the world And yet After Katrina also suggests that New Orleans culture offers a way of thinking about the United States in terms that transcend the binary of national renewal or declension The post Hurricane city thus emerges as a flashpoint for reflecting on the contemporary United States Breakpoint Jeremy B. C. Jackson,Steve Chapple,2018-01-01 An insightful look at the American environmental crisis and emerging solutions from the heartland to the coasts in the era of global climate change Eminent ecologist Jeremy B C Jackson and award winning journalist Steve Chapple traveled the length of the Mississippi River interviewing farmers fishermen scientists and policymakers to better understand the mounting environmental problems ravaging the United States Along their journey which quickly expands to California Florida and New York the pair uncovered surprising and profound connections between ecological systems and environmental crises across the country Artfully weaving together independent research and engaging storytelling Jackson and Chapple examine the looming threats from recent hurricanes and fires industrial agriculture river mismanagement extreme weather events drought and rising sea levels that are pushing the country toward the breaking point of ecological and economic collapse Yet despite these challenges the authors provide optimistic and practical solutions for addressing these multidimensional issues to achieve greater environmental stability human well being and future economic prosperity With a passionate call to action they look hopefully toward emerging and achievable solutions to preserve the country s future Muddy Thinking in the Mississippi River Delta Ned Randolph,2024-02-20 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Muddy Thinking in the Mississippi River Delta uses the story of mud to answer a deceptively simple question How can a place uniquely vulnerable to sea level rise be one of the nation's most promiscuous producers and consumers of fossil fuels Organized around New Orleans and South Louisiana as a case study this book examines how the unruly Mississippi River and its muddy delta shaped the people culture and governance of the region It proposes a framework of muddy thinking to gum the wheels of extractive capitalism and pollution that have brought us to the precipice of planetary collapse Muddy Thinking calls upon our dirty shared histories to address urgent questions of mutual survival and care in a rapidly changing world In Case of Katrina Ellen Jeffery Blue, 2016-08-04 Since six months after landfall Ellen Blue has taught The Church's Response to Katrina It sidesteps disaster response where clearly the church should be involved What was unclear was how leaders in a connectional denomination like United Methodism should decide which churches to merge or decommission after floods destroyed seventy churches and displaced ninety pastors and no one knew how many members would return Katrina gave the church a chance to re-make itself without deteriorating structures in no longer thriving neighborhoods Yet as members returned to chaos they sought solace Should the church meet needs for Sanctuary and reassurance or use newfound flexibility to seek justice In Case of Katrina examines leadership strategies and the theological convictions that underlay them during the struggle to decide The larger United Methodist Church controls real estate and the hierarchy had the power to choose Instead they let verdicts spring primarily from congregants and pastors on the ground through a long controversial process Recovery has been entwined with issues of race and class Cooperation among African American and Anglo congregations has birthed vibrant multi-racial worship and ministries Yet other prophetic ministry was left undone and it should set the agenda for the next decade embed container position relative padding bottom 56 25% height 0 overflow hidden max width 100% embed container iframe embed container object embed container embed position absolute top 0 left 0 width 100% height 100% Creating and Consuming the American South Martyn Bone, Brian Ward, William A. Link, 2019-10-16 This book explores how an eclectic selection of narratives and images of the American South have been developed and disseminated The contributors emphasize how ideas of the South have real social political and economic ramifications and that they register at various local regional national and transnational scales Scribal Representations and Social Landscapes of the Iron Age Shephelah Mahri Leonard-Fleckman, 2025 The Shephelah borderlands in the southwestern region of Iron Age Israel ca 1200-586 BCE are one of the most intensely excavated areas in the world a complex social political place standing between the central highlands and the coastal home of the so-called biblical Philistines Yet the lives of these people on the margins of ancient Israel are lost to us today left only in the fragments of archaeological remains and in the Bible's entangled representations of the proximate Other In Scribal Representations and Social Landscapes of the Iron Age Shephelah Mahri Leonard-Fleckman delves into how the Other is created and fashioned in ancient witnesses to these regions by analyzing identity in the Iron Age Shephelah Focusing on two contemporary archaeological sites with plausible ancient connections Tel Batash ancient Timnah and Tell es Safi ancient Gath she journeys through texts and archaeology that bear witness to the social and political complexities of the region Significantly she presents irresolution as a practice for scholars of the Hebrew Bible and the ancient Levant and illustrates how resisting conclusions can be an asset to investigating the distant past Along the way she advances new hypotheses that illuminate biblical passages describing individuals and communities from the region such as the stereotypical Philistines Samson Tamar Delilah and others The book draws together a range of critical perspectives to spark compelling conversations about identity and history between anthropologists archaeologists biblical scholars literary theorists and historians

New Orleans Rhythm and Blues After Katrina Michael Urban, 2016-04-08 Music magic and myth are elements essential to the identities of New Orleans musicians The city's singular contributions to popular music around the world have been unrivaled performing this music authentically requires collective improvisation taking performers on sonorous sojourns in unanticipated magical moments and membership in the city's musical community entails participation in the myth of New Orleans breathing new life into its storied traditions On the basis of 56 open ended interviews with those in the city's musical community Michael Urban discovers that indeed community is what it is all about In their own words informants explain that commercial concerns are eclipsed by the pleasure of playing in one big band that disassembles daily into smaller performing units whose rosters are fluid such that over time everybody plays with everybody Although Hurricane Katrina nearly terminated the city New Orleans and its music in no small part due to the sacrifices and labors of its musicians have come back even stronger Dancing to their own drum New Orleanians again prove themselves to be admirably out of step with the rest of America

Nonstop Metropolis Rebecca Solnit, Joshua Jelly-Schapiro, 2016-10-19 Nonstop Metropolis the culminating volume in a trilogy of atlases conveys innumerable unbound experiences of New York City through twenty six imaginative maps and informative essays Bringing together the insights of dozens of experts from linguists to music historians ethnographers urbanists and environmental journalists amplified by cartographers artists and photographers it explores all five boroughs of New York City and parts of nearby New Jersey We are invited to travel through Manhattan's playgrounds from polyglot Queens to many faceted Brooklyn and from the resilient Bronx to the mystical kung fu hip hop mecca of Staten Island The contributors to this exquisitely designed and gorgeously illustrated volume celebrate New York City's unique vitality its incubation of the avant garde and its literary history but they also critique its racial and economic inequality environmental impact and erasure of its past Nonstop Metropolis allows us to excavate New York's buried layers to scrutinize its political heft and to discover the unexpected in one of the most iconic cities in the world It is both a challenge and homage to how New Yorkers think of their city and how the world sees this capital of capitalism culture immigration and more Contributors Sheerly Avni Gaiutra Bahadur Marshall Berman Joe Boyd Will Butler Garnette Cadogan Thomas J Campanella Daniel Aldana Cohen Teju Cole Joel Dinerstein Paul La Farge Francisco Goldman Margo Jefferson Lucy R Lippard Barry Lopez Valeria Luiselli Suketu Mehta Emily Raboteau Molly Roy Sharifa Rhodes Pitts Luc Sante Heather Smith Jonathan Tarleton Astra Taylor Alexandra T Vazquez Christina Zanfagna Interviews with Valerie Capers Peter Coyote

The Georgia Review, 2014 Incarcerating the Crisis Jordan T. Camp, 2016-04-18 The United States currently has the largest prison population on the planet Over the last four decades structural unemployment concentrated urban poverty and mass homelessness have also become permanent features of the political economy These developments are without historical precedent but not without historical explanation In this searing critique Jordan T Camp traces the rise of the neoliberal carceral state through a series of turning points in U S history including the Watts insurrection in 1965 the Detroit rebellion in 1967 the Attica uprising in 1971 the Los Angeles revolt in 1992 and events in post Katrina New Orleans in 2005 Incarcerating the Crisis argues that these dramatic events coincided with the emergence of neoliberal capitalism and the state s attempts to crush radical social movements Through an examination of the poetic visions of social movements including those by James Baldwin Marvin Gaye June Jordan Jos Ram rez and Sunni Patterson it also suggests that alternative outcomes have been and continue to be possible

Dancing the Politics of Pleasure at the New Orleans Second Line Rachel Carrico, 2024-10-22 On many Sundays Black New Orleanians dance through city streets in Second Lines These processions invite would be spectators to join in grooving to an ambulatory brass band for several hours Though an increasingly popular attraction for tourists parading provides the second liners themselves with a potent public expression of Black resistance Rachel Carrico examines the parading bodies in motion as a form of negotiating and understanding power Seeing pleasure as a bodily experience Carrico reveals how second liners moves link joy and liberation self and communal identities play and dissent and reclamations of place As she shows dancers choices allow them to access the pleasure of reclaiming self and city through motion and rhythm while expanding a sense of the possible in the present and for the future In depth and empathetic Dancing the Politics of Pleasure at the New Orleans Second Line blends analysis with a chorus of Black voices to reveal an indelible facet of Black culture in the Crescent City

Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities

Monica Manolescu, 2018-10-03 Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities Art Literature and Urban Spaces explores phenomena of urban mapping in the discourses and strategies of a variety of postwar artists and practitioners of space Allan Kaprow Claes Oldenburg Vito Acconci Gordon Matta Clark Robert Smithson Rebecca Solnit Matthew Buckingham contemporary Situationist projects The distinctive approach of the book highlights the interplay between texts and site oriented practices which have often been treated separately in critical discussions Monica Manolescu considers spatial investigations that engage with the historical and social conditions of the urban environment and reflect on its mediated nature Cartographic procedures that involve walking and surveying are interpreted as unsettling and subversive possibilities of representing and navigating the postwar American city The book posits mapping as a critical nexus that opens up new ways of studying some of the most important postwar artistic engagements with New York and other American cities
