Quality education Muchativugwa L. Hove,Martha Matashu,2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education social justice gendered violence and human rights in South African schools and universities The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education social justice imperatives gendered violence in the lives of women and children and marginalised communities The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror express project and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise enact and interpret quality education The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education the instances of epistemic disobedience the political implications of place and power and human rights in theory and practice Heinemann History Study Units:

Student Book. Britain and the Great War Rosemary Rees,1993 Focusing on Britain and World War I this is one of a history series modular in structure which offers teachers the flexibility to design their own scheme of work at Key Stage 3 of the National Curriculum Each book covers all the core study units and also a wide range of optional units and aims to be visually stimulating as well as offering activities which develop both skills and understanding An extensive selection of primary and secondary sources is provided Each pupil book is accompanied by a teacher s assessment and resource pack which includes photocopiable worksheets Radical Students Alan Barcan,2002-08-04 From the 1920s to the 1960s the Australian Left struggled to make ideological sense of the Great Depression the growth of fascism and militarism overseas World War II the atomic bomb the Cold War and fear of communism All these issues found expression on the campus of Australia s oldest university where ardent youth pursued the ideal of social justice Sydney s controversial philosophy professor John Anderson and his Freethought Society added volatility to the mix with their rejection of orthodox politics Later impassioned hostility between supporters of the Communist Party the Labor Party and the Catholic Movement led by B A

Santamaria ruffled undergraduate life Alan Barcan was himself a participant in the radical movement This account of the period leavened with anecdotes and lively undergraduate wit recreates the texture of student life and the shifting faultlines of political loyalties The ruthless tactics ponderous zeal and underlying idealism of student politics are set against discussions of the liberal humanist tradition and the nature and purpose of universities Barcan presents a roll call of famous names in Australian political professional and cultural life Poet James McAuley with fag in mouth and a glass of cheap plonk pounds the piano for rehearsals of the student revue Similarly unfamiliar appearances are made by Gough Whitlam John Kerr H V Evatt Brian Fitzpatrick P R Stephensen Donald Horne Christopher Brennan A D Hope Germaine Greer Amy Witting Neville Wran Peter Coleman P P McGuinness and many other significant figures of the past half century Radical Students will stir the blood of those who were there and make stimulating reading for those Australians who care about education politics and liberal thought
