Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century Gender and Consumption Lydia Martens, Emma

Casey, 2016-04-15 Drawing upon anthropological sociological and historical perspectives this volume provides a unique insight into women s domestic consumption The contributors argue that domestic consumption represents an important lens through which to examine the everyday production and reproduction of socio economic relations Through a variety of case studies such as gambling wedding day consumption and bedroom d cor the essays explore and reconsider the nature of public and private spaces and the subsequent nature of domestic space often by challenging traditional notions of what constitutes the domestic The volume demonstrates the broad range of experiences that domestic consumption offers women and reveals some of the complex meanings and motivations underpinning women s consumption practices Gender and Memory in the Postmillennial Novels of Almudena Grandes Lorraine Ryan, 2021-04-22 Almudena Grandes is one of Spain s foremost women s writers having sold over 1 1 million copies of her episodios de una guerra interminable her six volume series that ranges from the Spanish Civil War to the democratic period the myriad prizes awarded to her 18 in total confirm her pre eminence This book situates Grandes s novels within gendered philosophical and mnemonic theoretical concepts that illuminate hidden dimensions of her much studied work Lorraine Ryan considers and expands on existing critical work on Grandes s oeuvre proposing new avenues of interpretation and understanding She seeks to debunk the arguments of those who portray Grandes as the proponent of a sectarian eminently biased Republican memory by analysing the wide variety of gender and perpetrator memories that proliferate in her work The intersection of perpetrator memory with masculinity ecocriticism medical ethics and the child s perspectives confirms Grandes nuanced engagement with Spanish memory culture Departing from a philosophical basis Ryan reconfigures the Republican victim in the novels as a vulnerable subject who attempts to flourish thus refuting the current critical opinion of the victim as overly empowered The new perspectives produced in this monograph do not aim to suggest that Grandes is an advocate of perpetrator memory rather it suggests that Grandes is committed to a more pluralistic idea of memory culture whereby her novels generate understanding of multiple victim perpetrator and gender memories an analysis that produces new and meaningful engagements with these novels Thus Ryan contends that Grandes s historical novels are infinitely more complex and nuanced than heretofore conceived

The Anthropology of East Europe Review ,2002 China Review International ,2011 AF Press Clips ,1966-12-28 Winning Women's Hearts and Minds Diana Cucuz,2023-01-31 Throughout the Cold War Soviet citizens had limited access to US life and culture Amerika a glossy Russian language magazine similar to Life provided a rare exception Produced by the United States Information Agency USIA America s first peacetime propaganda organization Amerika was used to influence the Soviet public and convince women in particular that an American style consumer culture and conservative gender norms could better their lives Winning Women s Hearts and Minds relies on USIA archives issues of Amerika and American women s magazines such as the Ladies Home Journal to show how during the postwar period USIA officials deployed idealized images of American women as happy fulfilled and feminine wives mothers and homemakers This study analyses how Amerika was used to appeal to Sovietwomen Portrayed in the US media as babushkas they were considered unfeminine overworked and deprived of consumer goods and services by a repressive regime Diana Cucuz provides a gendered analysis of the USIA and of Amerika whose propaganda campaign relied heavily on postwar conservative gender norms and images of domestic contentment to convey positive messages about the American way of life in the hopes of undermining the Soviet regime Winning Women s Hearts and Minds sheds light on the significance of women gender and consumption to international politics during the Cold War

The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV Alex Bevan,2019-02-07 The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV explores the aesthetic politics of nostalgia for 1950s and 60s America on contemporary television Specifically it looks at how nostalgic TV production design shapes and is shaped by larger historical discourses on gender and technological change and America s perceived decline as a global power Alex Bevan argues that the aesthetics of nostalgic TV tell stories of their own about historical decline and progress and the place of the baby boomer television suburb in American national memory She contests theories on nostalgia that see it as stagnating regressive or a reversion to outdated gender and racial politics and the technophobic longing for a bygone era and instead argues nostalgia is an important form of historical memory and vehicle for negotiating periods of historical transition The book addresses how and why the shows construct the boomer era as a placeholder for gender racial technological and declensionist discourses of the present The book uses Mad Men AMC 2007 2015 Ugly Betty ABC 2006 2010 Desperate Housewives ABC 2004 2012 and film remakes of 1950s and 60s family sitcoms as primary case studies Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present: O-T Paul Finkelman, 2009

Alphabetically arranged entries from O to T that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century The Invisible Woman The Invisible Woman Helen Walmsley-Johnson, 2015-06-04 Stylish and wittily written a brilliant read that should encourage us all to challenge the cult of youth and learn to love ourselves a little more along the way My Weekly There s nothing middle of the road about middle age From coping with bodies that are heading south to rampant ageism in the workplace this time in our lives in the words of Bette Davis is no place for sissies From family finances and work to cosmetics fashion and sex 60 year old Helen Walmsley Johnson the irrepressible voice behind the much loved Guardian column The Vintage Years shows with warmth and a wicked sense of humour how we can reinvent middle age for the next generation of women It was Another Skin Sian Supski, 2007 This study examines the meanings of the kitchen to women who were wives mothers housewives and homemakers in the 1950s in Western Australia It uses qualitative data collected from oral history interviews with migrant and Australian born women The book provides insight to women s everyday lives and analyses practices such as cooking ironing budgeting shopping dishwashing and decorating which provide women with power Central themes of this study explore the meaning of home and kitchen design and analyses how practices of the kitchen inform women s multiple identities It also shows how dominant discourses such as domesticity femininity and efficiency reinforce gendered notions of women s work in the kitchen Moreover the book examines points of resistance it shows that women perform their everyday practices design their kitchens and decorate them in ways that perhaps were not always intended by domestic science experts designers architects and manufacturers GoogleBooks New York Magazine , 1982-06-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Design 1900-1960 T.
