Structures of Desire Tony Williams, 2000-08-10 This book examines representations of desire in British cinema during a period of turbulent change. In addition to investigating male/female desire in status quo realist films and in various anti-realist movements represented by Gainsborough Melodrama and the work of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, the book also explores the various factors that affected utopian aspirations for a better postwar world and how these desires eventually became restrained by the dominant forces of conservative ideology. Structures of Desire provides new perspectives on previously recognized film movements such as Ealing Comedy and Gainsborough Melodrama while also offering analyses of interesting but neglected films such as Love on the Dole 1941, Perfect Strangers 1945, They Made Me a Fugitive 1947, The Bad Lord Byron 1949 and Madeleine 1950. The Encyclopedia of British Film Brian McFarlane, Anthony Slide, 2016-05-16 With well over 6,300 articles including over 500 new entries, this fourth edition of The Encyclopedia of British Film is a fully updated invaluable reference guide to the British film industry. It is the most authoritative volume yet stretching from the inception of the industry to the present day with detailed listings of the producers, directors, actors, and studios behind a century or so of great British cinema. Brian McFarlane's meticulously researched guide is the definitive companion for anyone interested in the world of film. Previous editions have sold many thousands of copies and this fourth edition will be an essential work of reference for enthusiasts interested in the history of British cinema and for universities and libraries.
