Innovation in Language Learning and Teaching Sin Wang Chong, Hayo Reinders, 2024-11-25 This book investigates the ways in which new developments in areas of language teaching practice such as policy making planning methodology and the use of educational technology are locally adopted adapted and initiated and implemented in the four nations of the United Kingdom England Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales By looking at the drivers stakeholders obstacles and affordances in particular regional contexts it is possible to gain a deeper insight into the ways in which change processes occur This will help anyone involved in language development from curriculum reform to materials development and from programme evaluation to the setting of assessment standards The chapters in this book cover all aspects of language education in England Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales from the primary to tertiary levels in both private and public settings as well as innovations at local regional and national levels The book will be of particular interest to those involved in managing change in language education that attempts to mediate between global trends and local needs Equity in the Classroom Caroline V. Gipps, 2003-09-02 Concerned with pedagogy and the learning achievement of both girls and boys this book examines international trends in subject performance throughout schooling and looks critically at a range of interventions in difference contexts and countries all aimed at enhancing equity in schools and higher education institutions The book argues that pedagogy can not be isolated from the overarching gender education system What can be done it claims is that teachers can be provided with a range of pedagogic strategies which can be used to make education as it is experienced by students and reflected in their achievements more just Equity in the Classroom Patricia Murphy, C. V. Gipps, 1996 Concerned with pedagogy and the learning achievement of both girls and boys this book examines international trends in subject performance throughout schooling and looks critically at a range of interventions in difference contexts and countries all aimed at enhancing equity in schools and higher education institutions The book argues that pedagogy can not be isolated from the overarching gender education system What can be done it claims is that teachers can be provided with a range of pedagogic strategies which can be used to make education as it is experienced by students and reflected in their achievements more just The Times Index, 2009 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement The Complete Guide to Becoming an English Teacher Stephen Clarke, Paul Dickinson, Jo Westbrook, 2009-11-13 Praise for the previous edition This is a text that should accompany every student teacher of English and find its way on to the shelf of all practising teachers This book excited me It is written in a style that makes you want to try out activities and take up challenges This book will encourage the student teacher to embrace the subject of English along with its associated values and debates ESCalate If I was training to teach English today this is the book I would want an extraordinarily professional handbook of good practice Geoff Barton Times Educational Supplement Teacher Magazine This essential companion for aspiring secondary English teachers has been extensively reworked to help students meet the very latest professional and academic standards while also equipping them with the knowledge and skills they will need for the beginning of their teaching career. Focusing on the essentials needed to be a successful English teacher, the authors combine subject knowledge with ideas, examples and approaches for creating an effective vibrant learning environment and real examples of lesson plans and schemes of work. Each chapter clearly links practice to theoretical and critical perspectives on teaching, making this an ideal text for students working towards M level credits or a Masters in Teaching and Learning. There are also brand new chapters which explore in greater depth specific areas of contention and challenging issues including Diversities including global perspectives on teaching English. The application and implications of using ICT. Multi agency provision in personalising learning. Research methodologies. Transition from the training year and the first year as a teacher. The latest requirements for Qualified Teacher Status are clearly signposted throughout and activities at the end of each chapter help to reinforce knowledge and encourage reflection. Written by a team of highly respected authors, this new edition should be on every secondary English student's bookshelf.

Teaching Literature in the A Level Modern Languages Classroom Katherine Raithby, Alison Taylor, 2019-07-02. This book provides essential support and advice on using literature in the A level modern languages classroom, addressing key concerns such as ways to approach this task and how to maximise the benefit to students. There are strategies for understanding works of different genres as well as ways to analyse plot, characterisation, themes and style, all presented in a logical way that allows existing teaching methods to be built upon. Including a step by step approach to all aspects of planning, resourcing and teaching literature in modern languages at advanced levels, this book covers essential topics such as: Why teaching and studying literature is important. How to choose the text. Preparing and introducing the literary text. Understanding the characters, themes, style and structure. Writing examination essays. Ways to spark creative language use before and beyond the set text. Based on the latest A level modern languages syllabus, this practical book will help both new and experienced teachers approach teaching literature with more confidence, which will enrich their students' language learning and inspire their creativity beyond examination requirements.

Communicative Approaches for Ancient Languages Mair E. Lloyd, Steven Hunt, 2021-04-08. This book is the first in its field. It showcases current and emerging communicative practices in the teaching and learning of ancient languages, Latin and Greek, across contemporary education in the US, the UK, South America and continental Europe. In all these parts of the globe, communicative approaches are increasingly being accepted as showing benefits for learners in school, university and college classrooms as well as at specialist conferences which allow for total immersion in an ancient language. These approaches are characterised by interaction with others using the ancient language. They may include various means and modalities such as face to face conversations and written communication. The ultimate aim is to optimise the facility to read such languages with comprehension and engagement. The examples showcased in this volume provide readers with a vital survey of the most current issues in communicative language teaching helping them to explore and consider adoption of a wider range of pedagogical practices and encouraging them to develop tools to promote engagement and retention of a wider variety of students than currently find ancient languages accessible Both new and experienced teachers and learners can build on the experiences and ideas in this volume to explore the value of these approaches in their own classrooms Whitaker's
