missed History of English Literature Hippolyte Taine, 1897 An Accidental Tragedy Graham Roderick, 2012-08-10 Based on contemporary documents and histories Roderick Graham paints a unique picture of Mary that sees her neither as a Catholic martyr nor as a husband murdering adulteress but as a young girl adrift in the dangerous seas of sixteenth century politics Mary Stuart had none of the ruthlessness of her contemporary sisters and the female empowerment of Catherine de Medici Diane de Poitiers or Elizabeth Tudor passed her by In an age of intellectually brilliant and powerful women Mary relied on her beauty and charm in place of reason and determination Passively and gracefully she allowed events to overtake her as accidents and when she did attempt to control her future she unwittingly set in train the events that would lead her to the executioner's block Entrepreneurism: A Philosophy And A Sensible Alternative For The Market Economy Rowland R Kao, Kenneth R Kao, Raymond W Y Kao, 2002-12-10 Contrary to traditional belief entrepreneurship is not just about making money nor is it merely about starting up a venture or owning a small business it is a way of life applicable to all human economic activities Living on a planet with finite resources humanity is sustainable only if there is constant pursuit of innovation and creativity not just for personal gain but also for the common good This book provides concise definitions of entrepreneurship entrepreneur and entrepreneurial for education and application within the framework of the market economy acts as a signpost pointing the way toward balancing the short term need for survival with the long term need for sustainable growth and serves as a philosophical beacon that will guide individuals particularly business leaders toward actions in the interest of humanity History of English literature, tr. by H. van Laun Hippolyte Adolphe Taine, 1873 The Collector of Burned Books Roseanna M. White, 2025-07-15 In this gripping World War II historical about the power of words two people form an unlikely friendship amid the Nazi occupation in Paris and fight to preserve the truth that enemies of freedom long to destroy Paris 1940 Ever since the Nazi Party began burning books German writers exiled for their opinions or heritage have been taking up residence in Paris There they opened a library meant to celebrate the freedom of ideas and gathered every book on the banned list and even incognito versions of the forbidden books that were smuggled back into Germany For the last six years Corinne Bastien has been reading those books and making that library a second home But when the German army takes possession of Paris she loses access to the library and all the secrets she'd hidden there Secrets the Allies will need if they have any hope of liberating the city she calls home Christian Bauer may be German but he never wanted anything to do with the Nazi Party he is a professor one who's done his best to protect his family as well as the books that were a threat to Nazi ideals But when Goebbels sends him to Paris to handle the relocation of France's libraries he's forced into an army uniform and given a rank he doesn't want In Paris he tries to protect whoever and whatever he can from the madness of the Party and preserve the ideas that Germans will need again when that madness is over and maybe find a lost piece of his heart Stand alone historical fiction from a bestselling Christy Award winning author A thought provoking novel perfect for book clubs Includes discussion questions Encyclopedia of Romanticism (Routledge Revivals)
