Within The Four Seas The Dialogue Of East And West:

Within the Four Seas Joseph Needham,1969 George Yeo: Selected Musings George Yong-boon Yeo,2024-05-03 Over sessions which lasted two to three hours each time every week for half a year George Yeo met and mused over a wide range of topics with writer Woon Tai Ho and research assistant Keith Yap Speaking from notes he began with himself and his hope for Singapore and then spanned over a wide range of subjects from the importance of human diversity and Singapore s reflection within itself of the world to history politics economics philosophy taijigong and religion He gives his views on India China ASEAN Europe the US and other parts of the world and how Singapore s history and destiny are connected to all of them The style is conversational and anecdotal George Yeo Musings is exactly that musings Some themes recur throughout the book which reflect his view of life But there is no grand theory He does not expect all of his reflections to be of interest to everyone but he hopes that everyone will find something of interest This special edition offers a selection of Musings from the three series A Peace History of India Klaus Schlichtmann,2016-09-01 This book is a great contribution to Peace Research

It places India in the world as a worthy player in international relations from ancient times The selection of four of the most significant historical peaks over two millennia the Ashoka era the Pala era the Orientalist era and the Gandhi era shows the uniqueness of India s peaceful history relevant not only for herself but for the whole of humankind To the point that in present times her engagement is destined to contribute to the urgent long awaited transformation of the United Nations Organization J S Behaviourist Art and Cybernetics Kate Sloan,2025-09-29 Drawing together key areas of cybernetic art practice in the UK and USA this book assesses British and American cybernetic art as relating to the intersecting field of Behaviourism This study takes as a starting point Roy Ascott s essay Behaviourist Art and the Cybernetic Vision 1966 and uses it to define a field of Behaviourist art from the period 1945 1975 Kate Sloan establishes the role of the cybernetic concept of feedback as a defining factor in understanding works of art as behavioural expanded well beyond the perimeters of what we consider cybernetic art The book also demonstrates how light as a behavioural trigger informed several discrete areas of art making from cybernetic art to countercultural light shows and behaviourist architectures The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history technology studies music history architectural history and design history

De-Westernizing Communication Research Georgette Wang,2010-12-14 The rise of postmodern theories and pluralist thinking has paved the way for multicultural approaches to communication studies and now is the time for decentralization de Westernization and differentiation This trend is reflected in the increasing number of communication journals with a national or regional focus Alongside this proliferation of research output from outside of the mainstream West there is a growing discontent with communication theories being Westerncentric Compared with earlier works that questioned the need to distinguish between the Western and the non Western and to build Asian communication theories there seems to be greater assertiveness and determination in searching for and developing theoretical frameworks and paradigms that take consideration of and therefore are more relevant to the cultural context in which research is accomplished This path breaking book moves beyond critiquing Westerncentrism in media and communication studies by examining where Eurocentrism has come from how is it reflected in the study of media and communication what the barriers and solutions to de centralizing the production of theories are and what is called for in order to establish Asian communication theories

Culture, Economic Growth, and Interstate Power Shift Steve Chan,2024-02-08 How has China s and East Asia s impressive economic growth been influenced by their Confucian heritage And how does economic growth affect interstate competition

A Culture of Growth Joel Mokyr,2018-06-12 Why Enlightenment culture sparked the Industrial Revolution During the late eighteenth century innovations in Europe triggered the Industrial Revolution and the sustained economic progress that spread across the globe While much has been made of the details of the Industrial Revolution what remains a mystery is why it took place at all Why did this revolution begin in the West and not elsewhere and why did it continue leading to today s unprecedented prosperity In this groundbreaking book celebrated economic historian Joel Mokyr argues that a culture of growth specific to early modern Europe and the European Enlightenment laid the foundations for the scientific advances and pioneering inventions that would instigate explosive technological and economic development Bringing together economics the history of science and technology and models of cultural evolution Mokyr demonstrates that culture the beliefs values and preferences in society that are capable of changing behavior was a deciding factor in societal transformations Mokyr looks at the period 1500 1700 to show that a politically fragmented Europe fostered a competitive market for ideas and a willingness to investigate the secrets of nature At the same time a transnational community of brilliant thinkers known as the Republic of Letters freely circulated and distributed ideas and writings This political fragmentation and the supportive intellectual environment explain how the Industrial Revolution happened in Europe but not China despite similar levels of technology and intellectual activity In Europe heterodox and creative thinkers could find sanctuary in other countries and spread their thinking across borders In contrast China s version of the Enlightenment remained controlled by the ruling elite Combining ideas from economics and cultural evolution A Culture of Growth provides startling reasons for why the foundations of our modern economy were laid in the mere two centuries between Columbus and Newton

Wei Yüan and China's Rediscovery of the Maritime World Jane Kate Leonard,2020-05-11 This book revises earlier views of statecraft reformer Wei Yuan and of Chinese foreign relations during the nineteenth century Approaching the history of nineteenth century China from the perspective of Southeast Asian history the author demonstrates the interaction from Ch in times onwards between China and the Southern ocean or Nan yang

World Communism, 1964-1969, a Selected Bibliography United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1971

The Lost Book of Sun Yatsen and Edwin Collins Patrick Anderson,2016-11-25 Sun Yatsen 1866 1925 occupies a unique position in modern Chinese history he is equally venerated as the founding father of the nation by both the mainland Communist government and its Nationalist rival in Taiwan The first president of the Republic of China in 1911 12 the peasant born yet Western trained Dr Sun was also a dedicated political theorist constantly in search of the ideal political and constitutional blueprint to underpin his incomplete revolution A decade before the public emergence in Japan of his Three Principles of the People and weeks before even his first slim publication in 1897 Kidnapped in London Sun was already hard at work in the Reading Room of the British Museum planning his most ambitious book yet a comprehensive political treatise in English on the tyrannical misgovernment of the Chinese nation by the Manchus of the Qing Dynasty Started then abandoned twice over destined never to be completed let alone published we can only conjecture what title this revolutionary book might have had The Lost Book of Sun Yatsen and Edwin Collins is the first study of this lost work in all scholarship Western or Chinese It draws its originality and its themes from three primary sources all presented here for the first time The first is a series of interconnected lost writings co authored by Sun Yatsen between 1896 and 1898 The second is the mass of lost political interviews with and articles dedicated to Sun Yatsen and his politics first published in the British press in the aftermath the dramatic world famous rescue of Sun from inside the Chinese Legation in London in 1896 The third source is the Apostle of the Simple Life for Children the Anglo Jewish Rabbi Edwin Collins 1858 1936 a devotee and practitioner of Jean Jacques Rousseau s mile and the New Education movement it inspired who became Sun s writing collaborator of choice during his years of political exile from China Drawing on this wealth of neglected material Patrick Anderson s book offers a genuinely fresh perspective on Sun Yatsen and his political motivations and beliefs

Education , The Sociology of Islam Bryan S. Turner,Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir,2016-03-03 Taking a thematic approach Bryan S Turner draws together his writings which explore the relationship between Islam and the ideas of Western social thinkers Turner engages with the broad categories of capitalism orientalism modernity gender and citizenship among others as he examines how Muslims adapt to changing times and how Islam has come to be managed by those in power

Journeys East Harry Oldmeadow,2004-04-28 This is the first book to treat the impact of religious philosophical and psychological traditions of the East on Western intellectuals artists travellers and spiritual seekers in the twentieth century Addressed to both general readers and scholars of religion it is especially valuable for its penetrating and inter religious analysis of two of the most compelling themes now facing the world the emergence of cross cultural religious understanding of the natural order and ecological crisis and the metaphysical basis for both the formal diversity and essential unity of religious traditions of both East and West The West has long romanticized the mysterious East but it has also judged its traditions as uncivilized Our notions about Eastern spirituality have been formed by a succession of travellers scientists artists intellectuals poets philosophers and missionaries as well as by Eastern travellers who have spent time in the West This book helps us to recognize the influence of Eastern ideas upon modern Western thought by tracing the history of engagements between East and West up until the present day It concludes with a section that helps us to perceive the timeless value of the many Eastern contributions to the West s current intellectual and spiritual state

Culture, Ideology, Hegemony K. N. Panikkar, 2002 This volume explores the interconnections between culture ideology and hegemony in an effort to understand and explain how Indians came to terms with colonial subjection and envisioned a future for the society in which they lived The process of exploring the indigenous epistemological tradition and assessing it in the context of advances made by the west was not unilinear and undifferentiated it was driven with contradictions contentions and ruptures Locating intellectual history at the intersection of social and cultural history the eight essays in this book cover a wide range of issues moving from an overview of religious and social ideas in colonial India to empirical studies of themes such as indigenous medicine the family and literary fiction Professor Panikkar contests both the imperialist and nationalist paradigms of intellectual history Meticulously researched and lucidly argued his analysis is illuminated by a rare sensitivity to the nature of class formation and class values as well as to the material conditions of human existence

Social Dialectics Anouar Abdel-Malek, 1981-06-30 Civilisations and Social Theory takes as its starting point the present as the most decisive period of the transformation of the world since Europe s rise to hegemony in the fifteenth century If we are adequately to comprehend our times the author argues it is necessary to adopt a cross cultural perspective based on the historical dialectical method and following the path of meaningful comparativism From this perspective the book provides a detailed critique of Orientalism The notion of the Orient is reassessed and its usefulness reasserted against such operational concepts as the Third world and the Underdeveloped South

World Military History Bibliography Barton Hacker, 2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967 1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1 general and comparative topics 2 the ancient world 3 Eurasia since antiquity 4 sub Saharan Africa and Oceania 5 pre

Columbian America 6 postcontact America 7 the contemporary nonwestern world and 8 philosophical social scientific natural scientific and other works not primarily historical

China Is Not Our Enemy Tai P. Ng, 2021-11-29 In a time where the USA seems frantic to maintain their world domination by funding a crusade for democracy it is easy to paint China as an enemy that needs to be kept in check But is world domination the right goal What about world peace and harmony for all people The greatest challenges facing humanity now are global in nature crossing countries and cultures The world doesn't need another religious or ideological battle such as democracy vs communism It needs all the citizens of our world but in particular our world leaders and advisors to truly lead in building empathy and mutual trust promoting cooperation over competition for the benefit of all humanity As such a greater understanding of China is no longer optional in our global village It is necessary if we want to tackle global challenges such as the COVID 19 pandemic or face critical world issues such as climate change world peace and collaborative governance As China returns to its original path and reinstates itself as one of the key world leaders it demands to be treated with respect and as an equal China is not our enemy Their Confucian roots are strongly grounded in building harmonious human relationships and we in the West must build our empathy and knowledge so we can see more shades of grey in this complicated world We all share this planet and its future destiny together and confrontational Western thinking will only lead to war This macroscopic view of Chinese civilization and cultural development will help Western educated readers better interpret world events through a broader and deeper understanding of Chinese ways of thinking and behaving China's historical trajectory and trends Current developments and the context behind and around them The authors suggest that we need to view the Chinese way as complementary instead of focusing on the differences We should spend our energy and resources improving our world instead of minimizing others to maintain superiority Each of us can change the world for the better Let's replace us versus them thinking with more we and more trust as mutual understanding and tolerance will enable all of us as humans on Earth to live in greater harmony with each other and with ourselves

Reimagining the International Yongjin Zhang, 2025-01-07 A rich and enlightening study of Chinese international relations this book examines Chinese world ordering before the West as both intellectual history and institutional practices in deep world history It shows how engaging China's historical pursuit of ordering the world can contribute to our search for global foundations of international thought Offering a distinctive English School perspective this volume is a call to put studies of Chinese international relations in their proper historical context It argues that such an approach leads to a better understanding of Chinese ideas and statecraft and contends that reimagining the international is indispensable for a fruitful pursuit of knowledge production in the construction of global IR

Jesuit Missionary, Scientist, Engineer and Diplomat John Witek, 2024-12-11 The subject of Dr Lippiello's study is one of bewildering complexity and variety The book presents the proceedings of the international conference in Leuven in 1988 held in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the death of the Belgian Jesuit Ferdinand Verbiest Scientist engineer and diplomat he was above all a missionary who contributed significantly to the growth of Christianity in China and to Sino-Western cultural exchange
