The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 4, Nineteenth-Century Poetry 1800-1910 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994. This is the first complete narrative history of nineteenth century American poetry. Barbara Packer explores the neoclassical and satiric forms mastered by the early Federalist poets, the creative reaches of once celebrated and still compelling poets like Longfellow and Whittier, the distinctive lyric forms developed by Emerson and the Transcendentalists. Shira Wolosky provides a new perspective on the achievement of female poets of the period as well as a close appreciation of African American poets including the collective folk authors of the Negro spirituals. She also illuminates the major works of the period from Poe through Melville and Crane to Whitman and Dickinson. The authors of this volume discuss this extraordinary literary achievement both in formal terms and in its sustained engagement with changing social and cultural conditions. In doing so they recover and elucidate American poetry of the nineteenth century for our twenty first century pleasure, profit and renewed study.
