Following Zwingli Luca Baschera, Bruce Gordon, 2016-04-15 Following Zwingli explores history scholarship and memory in Reformation Zurich The humanist culture of this city was shaped by a remarkable sodality of scholars many of whom had been associated with Erasmus In creating a new Christian order Zwingli and his colleagues sought biblical historical literary and political models to shape and defend their radical reforms After Zwingli's sudden death the next generation was committed to the institutional and intellectual establishment of the Reformation through ongoing dialogue with the past The essays of this volume examine the immediacy of antiquity early Christianity and the Middle Ages for the Zurich reformers Their reading and appropriation of history was no mere rhetorical exercise or polemical defence The Bible theology church institutions pedagogy and humanist scholarship were the lifeblood of the Reformation But their appropriation depended on the interplay of past ideals with the pressing demands of a sixteenth century reform movement troubled by internal dissention and constantly under attack This book focuses on Zwingli's successors and on their interpretations of the recent and distant past the choices they made and why How those pasts spoke to the present and how they were heard tell us a great deal not only about the distinctive nature of Zurich and Zwinglianism but also about locality history and religious change in the European Reformation Activity

Müller, Olga Fischer, 2003 This volume a sequel to Form Miming Meaning 1999 and The Motivated Sign 2001 offers a selection of papers given at the Third International Symposium on Iconicity in Language and Literature Jena 2001 The studies collected here present a number of new departures Special consideration is given to the way non linguistic visual and auditory signs such as gestures and bird sounds are represented in language and more specifically in signed language and how such signs influence semantic conceptualization Other studies examine more closely how visual signs and representations of time and space are incorporated or reflected in literary language in fiction as well as experimental poetry A further new approach concerns intermedial iconicity which emerges in art when its medium is changed or another medium is imitated A more abstract diagrammatic type of iconicity is again investigated with reference to both language and literature some essays focus on the device of reduplication isomorphic tendencies in word formation and on creative iconic patterns in syntax while others explore numerical design in Dante and geometrical patterning in Dylan Thomas A number of theoretically oriented papers pursue post Peircean approaches such as the application of reader response theory and of systems theory to iconicity
