Mysteries associated with ancient Egypt are not confined to the pyramids of Giza For example consider these One Egyptian hieroglyph is patterned after a bird known as the jabiru another is an image of a saguaro cactus Both the jabiru and the saguaro are found only in the Western Hemisphere so how did they become hieroglyphs Tutankhamen is referred to as the boy king by Egyptologists Why then were statues found in the tomb portraits of a young woman Hatshepsut is said to have been a female pharaoh who reigned for 22 years but then disappeared from the scene What happened to her And why was her image expunged from the walls of temples Senenmut a favorite of Hatshepsut wrote that he had access to all the writings of the prophets Which prophets did he mean Why does the face of the mummy of Ramesses II not match the statues of this great pharaoh Also why did the embalmers remove the stomach and place the heart on the right side of the thorax And why were diced tobacco leaves from the Western Hemisphere used to line the chest cavity Why was Yuya supposedly the father of the great Queen Tiy buried with three coffins while his wife had only two Moreover why did the mask that covered his face along with the face on the innermost coffin look totally different from the mummy and from each other Death masks were found not just in Egypt but in Greece as well The most famous of these came from grave 5 at Mycenae Each eye of this gold mask has double eyelids In addition like the Sphinx at Giza and the Shroud of Turin the left eye is higher than the right and the mouth is not centered How can such similarities be explained Turning to Italy on the underside of the right wrist of the Prima Porta statue of Augustus there is the distinct impression of the head of a spike According to historians this statue depicts the first emperor of Rome but what if it is instead a portrait of a man who was crucified These mysteries along with many others are examined in detail and then convincingly explained in this first of two volumes to explore crucial links between Egypt Israel Greece and Italy History of the Roman People Allen M. Ward, Fritz M. Heichelheim, Cedric A.

Yeo,2016-05-23 A History of the Roman People provides a comprehensive analytical survey of Roman history from its prehistoric roots in Italy and the wider Mediterranean world to the dissolution of the Roman Empire in Late Antiquity ca A D 600 Clearly organized and highly readable the text s narrative of major political and military events provides a chronological and conceptual framework for chapters on social economic and cultural developments of the periods covered Major topics are treated separately so that students can easily grasp key concepts and ideas Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal Aliou Cissé Niang,2009 Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal reads Galatians 2 11 15 and 3 26 29 through the lens of the 19th 20th century experiences of French colonialism by the Diola people in Senegal West Africa and portrays the Apostle Paul as a sociopostcolonial hermeneut who acted on his self understanding as God s messenger to create through faith in the cross of Christ free communities a self definition that is critical of ancient Graeco Roman and modern colonial lore that justify colonization as a divine mandate Aliou C Niang ingeniously compares the colonial objectification of his own people by French colonists to the Graeco Roman colonial objectifications of the ancient Celts Gauls Galatians and Paul s role in bringing about a different portrayal A Short History of the Ancient World Nicholas K. Rauh,Heidi E. Kraus,2018-01-11 A Short History of the Ancient World begins with the Bronze Age and ends with the collapse of the Roman Empire Rather than restricting his analysis to the Greek and Roman experience Rauh introduces students to ancient Africa Israel Egypt Iran China and the Indian subcontinent To aid students on their journey into the ancient world Rauh has provided key terms and definitions What Have We Learned review points and an engaging art program that includes 51 images within the Art in Focus and Materials and Techniques features Informative maps chronologies and tables also give students a closer look into the rise and fall of these great civilizations Learning extends beyond the book with UTP s History Matters website www.utphistorymatters.com which includes relevant essay and multiple choice questions With A Short History of the Ancient World Rauh has crafted a comprehensive exploration of humanity s most fascinating early civilizations The Ancient Art of Emulation Elaine K. Gazda,2002 Are copies of Greek and Roman masterpieces as important as the originals they imitate Hermathena ,1992 The Image of Political Power in the Reign of Nerva, AD 96-98 Nathan T. Elkins,2017 At age 65 Nerva assumed the role of emperor of Rome just sixteen months later his reign ended with his death Nerva s short reign robbed his regime of the opportunity for the emperor s imperial image to be defined in building or monumental art leaving seemingly little for the art historian or archaeologist to consider In view of this paucity studies of Nerva primarily focus on the historical circumstances governing his reign with respect to the few relevant literary sources The Image of Political Power in the Reign of Nerva AD 96 98 by contrast takes the entire imperial coinage program issued by the mint of Rome to examine the self representation and by extension the policies and ideals of Nerva s regime The brevity of Nerva s reign and the problems of retrospection caused by privileging posthumous literary sources make coinage one of the only ways of reconstructing anything of his image and ideology as it was disseminated and developed at the end of the first century during the emperor's lifetime The iconography of this coinage and the popularity and spread of different iconographic types as determined by study of hoards and finds and as targeted towards different ancient constituencies offers a more positive take on a little studied emperor Across three chapters Elkins traces the different reverse types and how they would have resonated with their intended audiences concluding with an examination of the parallels between text and coin iconography with previous and subsequent emperors The Image of Political Power in the Reign of Nerva AD 96-98 thus offers significant new perspectives on the agents behind the selection and formulation of iconography in the late first and early second century showing how coinage can act as a visual panegyric similar to contemporary laudatory texts by tapping into how the inner circle of Nerva's regime wished the emperor to be seen

Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology Amy Gansell, Ann Shafer, 2020-01-06 Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology invites readers to reconsider the contents and agendas of the art historical and world culture canons by looking at one of their most historically enduring components the art and archaeology of the ancient Near East Ann Shafer Amy Rebecca Gansell and other top researchers in the field examine and critique the formation and historical transformation of the ancient Near Eastern canon of art architecture and material culture Contributors flesh out the current boundaries of regional and typological sub canons analyze the technologies of canon production such as museum practices and classroom pedagogies and voice first hand heritage perspectives Each chapter thereby critically engages with the historiography behind our approach to the Near East and proposes alternative constructs Collectively the essays confront and critique the ancient Near Eastern canon's present configuration and re imagine its future role in the canon of world art as a whole This expansive collection of essays covers the Near East's many regions eras and types of visual and archaeological materials offering specific and actionable proposals for its study Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology stands as a vital benchmark and offers a collective path forward for the study and appreciation of Near Eastern cultural heritage This book acts as a model for similar inquiries across global art historical and archaeological fields and disciplines

Reading Acts William Shiell, 2021-11-15 William Shiell proposes that the book of Acts was performed orally by a lector in the early church following Greco Roman rhetorical conventions for recitation and delivery rather than directly read by an audience that was minimally literate Shiell's study outlines the function of the lector in Greco Roman times as a filter through which an audience would receive a text He describes the conventions for performers gestures facial expressions and vocal inflections found in material from Greco Roman literature and art that are mirrored in the book of Acts He examines how a reading of Acts in this light can fill interpretive gaps left by literary and rhetorical critical studies that focus on the reading rather than the hearing of biblical texts

Money and Marketing in the Art World Henrik Hagtvedt, 2024-10-21 How does the art market choose its winners thereby also deciding what millions of visitors to galleries and museums will view year after year Whereas art historical writing and contemporary commentary tend to highlight the efforts of specific artists this book illustrates how money and marketing in combination with general trends play decisive roles in shaping the art world and in propelling specific artists and artworks to positions of prominence Today perhaps more than ever before the high profile art world is primarily shaped by buyers and those who cater to buyers The actual artists although most visible to the public tend to play a secondary role The time seems particularly ripe for transparency about how the art world works given the growth in the art market media attention on and popular interest in high priced art and controversy surrounding public funding for art and the value of art for contemporary society With a combination of marketplace observations marketing insights and relevant research findings this book contributes to increased transparency while providing thought provoking digressions and anecdotes along the way Money and Marketing in the Art World offers an accessible analysis of the art market for scholars and graduate students across arts marketing and management as well as for those more broadly interested in art and business The Art Bulletin, 2005 Includes section Notes and reviews
