Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte,2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country

A Proposal for the Expanded Fruition of Cultural Heritage Sites Carla Ferreyra,2025-05-06 This book presents a comprehensive methodology integrating analysis digitization and the preservation of cultural heritage It investigates three potential UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Italy Germany and South

Africa and employs a blend of documentary research and advanced digital surveying and data processing techniques The volume shows how these efforts yielded actionable strategies to meet society s evolving demands for surveying recovery and conservation The book documents the work behind the overarching objective which was to digitize analyze categorize and store all collected data within a BIM framework with the aim of streamlining collaboration enhancing management efficiency and optimizing processes It demonstrates the utilization of digital tools in not only amplifying traditional scientific technological approaches to heritage protection but also its role in reshaping the perception comprehension and communication of heritage This fosters the development of more sustainable conservation strategies South Africa

Yearbook ,2009 Comparative Human Rights Law Sandra Fredman,2018-11-08 Courts in different jurisdictions face similar human rights questions Does the death penalty breach human rights Does freedom of speech include racist speech Is there a right to health This book uses the prism of comparative law to examine the fascinating ways in which these difficult questions are decided On the one hand the shared language of human rights suggests that there should be similar solutions to comparable problems On the other hand there are important differences Constitutional texts are worded differently courts have differing relationships with the legislature and there are divergences in socio economic development politics and history Nevertheless there is a growing transnational conversation between courts with cases in one jurisdiction being cited in others Part I sets out the cross cutting themes which shape the ways judges respond to challenging human rights issues It examines when it is legitimate to refer to foreign materials how universality and cultural relativity are balanced in human rights law the appropriate role of courts in adjudicating human rights in a democracy and the principles judges use to interpret human rights texts The book is unusual in transcending the distinction between socio economic rights and civil and political rights Part II applies these cross cutting themes to comparing human rights law in the US UK South Africa Canada and India Its focus is on seven particularly challenging issues the death penalty abortion housing health speech education and religion with the aim of inspiring further comparative examination of other pressing human rights issues Research and development Tshwane University of Technology,2005
