Orbiting William S Burroughs:

Orbiting William S. Burroughs, 2015 Professor Weiss first met William Burroughs in 1977 at Naropa where he took a writing class from El Hombre Invisible He was immediately fascinated by the wayward genius Over the next few decades Weiss published literary journalism and literary criticism on Burroughs as well as thoroughly explored Burroughs in famous cut up and fold in techniques Chapter 1 of Orbiting William S Burroughs is literary journalism which sets the scene at Naropa Chapter 2 is an interview with Burroughs that Weiss completed during Burroughs Place of Dead Roads tour Chapters 3 and 4 are fold in fictions extrapolations of Burroughs unique and important experiments with chance The last chapter Riding the Nova Express is a distillation of Weiss s graduate work on Burroughs It provides a unique literary critical perspective on Burroughs novel Nova Express his most cut up novel Orbiting William S Burroughs is an exciting eclectic mix which provides many ways of looking at Burroughs and his work There is something for everyone Understanding William S. Burroughs Gerald Alva (Al) Miller, 2020-02-05 Through critical readings Gerald Alva Miller Jr examines the life of William S Burroughs and the evolution of his various radical styles not just in writing but also in audio film and painting Although Burroughs remains tied to the Beat Generation his works prove more revolutionary Miller argues that Burroughs more than any other author ushered in the era of both postmodern fiction and poststructural philosophy Through this study Miller situates Burroughs within the larger countercultural movements that began in the 1950s when his novels became influential because of their examination of various control systems from sex and drugs to global or even intergalactic conspiracies Understanding William S Burroughs begins by considering his early straightforward narratives Despite being more stylistically conventional they broke new ground with their depictions of junkies gay people and others marginalized by society The publication of Naked Lunch shattered all literary paradigms in terms of form and content Naked Lunch and the cut up novels recordings films and art that followed constitute one of the twentieth century s most sustained and methodical aesthetic experiments placing Burroughs alongside Franz Kafka Jorge Luis Borges James Joyce Samuel Beckett Vladimir Nabokov and Thomas Pynchon in terms of both innovation and influence Burroughs eventually turned his attention toward imagining methods of using the control machinery against itself Often considered his masterpiece the Red Night Trilogy of the 1980s ranges across time and space and life and death in its quest to discover the ultimate form of freedom His antiestablishment stance and virulent attacks on various types of oppression have caused Burroughs to remain a highly influential figure to each new generation of authors artists musicians and philosophers The hippies punks and cyberpunks were all heavily indebted to the man whom many people called el hombre invisible and his works prove more relevant than ever in the twenty first century The Science Fiction Handbook Nick Hubble, Aris Mousoutzanis, 2013-11-28 As we move through the 21st century the importance of science fiction to the study of English Literature is becoming increasingly apparent The Science Fiction Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to the genre and how to study it for students new to the field In particular it provides detailed entries on major writers in the SF field who might be encountered on university level English Literature courses ranging from H G Wells and Philip K Dick to Doris Lessing and Geoff Ryman Other features include an historical timeline sections on key writers critics and critical terms and case studies of both literary and critical works In the later sections of the book the changing nature of the science fiction canon and its growing role in relation to the wider categories of English Literature are discussed in depth introducing the reader to the latest critical thinking on the field

Writing Our Extinction Patrick Whitmarsh, 2023-04-11 Mid twentieth century developments in science and technology produced new understandings and images of the planet that circulated the globe giving rise to a modern ecological consciousness but they also contributed to accelerating crises in the global environment including climate change pollution and waste In this new work Patrick Whitmarsh analyzes postwar narrative fictions that describe depict or express the earth from above the aerial and below the subterranean revealing the ways that literature has engaged this history of vertical science and linked it to increasing environmental precarity up to and including the extinction of humankind Whitmarsh examines works by writers such as Don DeLillo Karen Tei Yamashita Reza Negarestani and Colson Whitehead alongside postwar scientific programs including the Space Race atmospheric and underground nuclear testing and geological expeditions such as Project Mohole which attempted to drill to the earth's mantle As Whitmarsh argues by focusing readers' attention on the fragility of postwar life through a vertical lens Anthropocene fiction highlights the interconnections between human behavior and planetary change These fictions situate industrial history within the much longer narrative of geological time and reframe scientific progress as a story through which humankind writes itself out of existence
