George Eliot's Early Novels U. C. Knoepfelmacher,2024-03-29 This study shows how George Eliot a leader in the nineteenth century intellectual world of Darwin and the Industrial Revolution wrestled in her early novels with the esthetic problems of reconciling her art and her philosophy Attempting in her fiction to reproduce the real temporal world she lived in George Eliot also tried to reassure herself and her readers that their godless modern world still operated according to higher moral laws of justice and perfectibility U C Knoepfelmacher examines here for the first time in sequence George Eliot s development of increasingly sophisticated forms of fiction in her efforts to reconcile the two conflicting orientations in her thought We see this popular novelist as she progressed artistically from the flawed Amos Barton in 1857 up to the balance she achieved in Silas Marner in 1861 And we discover her in the context of her literary antecedents and surrounding in a way that brings many new affiliations to light particularly the connection of her novels to the writings of Milton the Romantic poets and her contemporaries Arnold and Carlyle Professor Knoepfmacher thoroughly discusses each work in George Eliot's first stage bringing new attention to minor works like The Lifted Veil and Scenes of Clerical Life and fresh insights to such well known works as Adam Bede The Mill on the Floss and Silas Marner This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1968 A History of the Novel Previous to the Seventeenth Century Frederick Morris Warren, 1895 Medieval Romance James F. Knapp, Peggy A. Knapp, 2017-01-01 Medieval Romance is the first study to focus on the deep philosophical underpinnings of the genre's fictional worlds Uncovering the Mind Alison Sinclair, 2001 Migrant architects of the NHS draws on forty five oral history interviews and extensive archival research to offer a radical reappraisal of how the National Health Service was made It tells the story of migrant South Asian doctors who became general practitioners in the NHS Imperial legacies professional discrimination and an exodus of UK trained doctors combined to direct these doctors towards work as GPs in some of the most deprived parts of the UK In some areas they made up over half of the general practitioner workforce The NHS was structurally dependent on them and they shaped British society and medicine through their agency Aimed at students and academics with interests in the history of immigration immigration studies the history of medicine South Asian studies and oral history It will also be of interest to anyone who wants to know more about how Empire and migration have contributed to making Britain what it is today Narrating Life - Experiments with Human and Animal Bodies in Literature, Science and Art, 2016-02-02 Narrating Life explores the relationship between literature science and the arts and the way in which they are informed by the process of narrating life More specifically it asks how do literature science and the arts affect and are affected by the emergence of a critical culture of biopolitics and its rhetorical figurations Its topicality for literary and cultural studies lies therefore in its exploration of the question to what extent could narratives of life or life writing be understood as a special practice through which to access the contemporary discussion about biopolitics with its strategies of immunity mutation and contagion The individual contributions address these questions through focusing on new forms of life writing in traditional and new media science writing and artistic and critical creative practice In doing so they also explore and redraw the boundaries between fictional and factual experimental practices Contributors Amelie Bj rck Elisabeth Friis Holly Henry Stefan Herbrechter Tom Idema Moritz Ingwersen Cristina Iuli Tanja Nusser Angela Rawlings Manuela Rossini Dorion Sagan Laura Shackelford Amalie Smith Marianne Sommer Steve Tomasula David Wagner Jeff Wallace Dominik Zechner Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian

Getting Opera Matt Dobkin, 2000 A guide to the often misunderstood musical form offers readers an irreverent tour of the opera world and the music it supports

Music and Identity in Postcolonial British South-Asian Literature Christin Hoene, 2014-08-27 This book examines the role of music in British South Asian postcolonial literature asking how music relates to the construction of postcolonial identity It focuses on novels that explore the postcolonial condition in India Pakistan and the United Kingdom Vikram Seth s A Suitable Boy Amit Chaudhuri s Afternoon Raag Suhayl Saadi s Psychoraag Hanif Kureishi s The Buddha of Suburbia and The Black Album and Salman Rushdie s The Ground Beneath Her Feet with reference to other texts such as E M Forster s A Passage to India and Vikram Seth s An Equal Music The analyzed novels feature different kinds of music from Indian classical to non classical traditions and from Western classical music to pop music and rock n roll Music is depicted as a cultural artifact and as a purely aestheticized art form at the same time As a cultural artifact music derives meaning from its socio cultural context of production and serves as a frame of reference to explore postcolonial identities on their own terms As purely aesthetic art music escapes its contextual meaning The transgressive qualities of music render it capable of expressing identities irrespective of origin and politics of location Thereby music in the novels marks a very productive space to imagine the postcolonial nation and to rewrite imperial history to express the cultural hybridity of characters in between nations to analyze the state of the nation and life in the multicultural diaspora of contemporary Great Britain and to explore the ramifications of cultural globalization versus cultural imperialism It will be a useful research and teaching tool for those interested in postcolonial literature music studies cultural studies contemporary literature and South Asian literature

Unamuno: Mist , 2014-07-02 Mist Niebla published in 1914 is one of Miguel de Unamuno s key works a truly Modernist work of Europe wide significance which aims to shatter the conventions of fiction using the novel as a vehicle for exploration of philosophical themes

Postcolonial Readings of Music in World Literature Cameron Fae Bushnell, 2013 This book reads representations of Western music in literary texts to reveal the ways in which artifacts of imperial culture function within contemporary world literature Bushnell argues that Western music s conventions for performance composition and listening established during the colonial period persist in postcolonial thought and practice Music from the Baroque Classical and Romantic periods Bach through Brahms coincides with the rise of colonialism and Western music contains imperial attitudes and values embedded within its conventions standards and rules The book focuses on the culture of classical music as reflected in the worlds of characters and texts and contends that its effects outlast the historical significance of the real composers pieces styles and forms Through examples by authors such as McEwan Vikram Seth Bernard MacLaverty Chang rae Lee and J M Coetzee the book demonstrates how Western music enters narrative as both acts of history and as structures of analogy that suggest subject positions human relations and political activity that in turn describes a postcolonial condition The uses to which Western music is put in each literary text reveals how European art music of the seventeenth through the nineteenth centuries is read and misread by postcolonial generations exposing mostly hidden cultural structures that influence our contemporary understandings of social relations and hierarchies norms for resolution and for assigning significance and standards of propriety The book presents strategies for thinking anew about the persistence of cultural imperialism reading Western music simultaneously as representative of imperial cultural dominance and as suggestive of resistant structures forms and practices that challenge the imperial hegemony The Argonautika by Orpheus Alexandra Maria Madela,2024-12-02 Is it possible to be better than Homer For most literary critics in late antiquity the answer was an unequivocal no but the anonymous author of the Argonautika by Orpheus disagreed This book the first English monograph on this late antique epic poem demonstrates that the idea of competing with Homer is central to the Argonautika by Orpheus Through a series of case studies on the poem s diction and compositional technique it proposes a novel approach Since the mythological bard Orpheus is ostensibly the poem s author readers are invited to view it from two perspectives simultaneously as a late antique epic modelled on Homer s works but also a prehistorical model for Homer s works The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch,2009-09-24 Written by a team of more than 150 contributors working under the direction of Dinah Birch and ranging in influence from Homer to the Mahabharata this guide provides the reader with a comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature Unamuno ,
