Literary News L. Pylodet, Augusta Harriet Garrigue Leypoldt, 1896      The American Bookseller, 1887      Literary News Frederick Leypoldt, 1896      Literary News, 1891      The Publishers Weekly, 1895      Troubled American Richard Lemon, 1971-10-15 From Simon Schuster Troubled American is Richard Lemon's exploration of America's new found discontent as discovered in a famous Gallup Poll Richard Lemon's Troubled American compiles studies and sentiments from recent decades to focus on America's discontent and what specifically has contributed to this new found feeling including political unrest and the troubles of middle America      The Navy List Great Britain. Admiralty, 1881      Navajo Trading Willow Roberts Powers, 2002-11 This overview is the first to examine trading in the last quarter of the twentieth century when changes in both Navajo and white cultures led to the investigation of trading practices by the Federal Trade Commission resulting in the demise of most traditional trading posts      The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low, 1956 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers      A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942, 1942      Navajo Land, Navajo Culture Robert S. McPherson, 2001 In Navajo Land Navajo Culture Robert S. McPherson presents an intimate history of the Din or Navajo people of southeastern Utah Moving beyond standard history by incorporating Native voices the author shows how the Dine's culture and economy have both persisted and changed during the twentieth century As the dominant white culture increasingly affected their worldview these Navajos adjusted to change took what they perceived as beneficial and shaped or filtered outside influences to preserve traditional values With guidance from Navajo elders McPherson describes varied experiences ranging from traditional deer hunting to livestock reduction from bartering at a trading post to acting in John Ford movies and from the coming of the automobile to the burgeoning of the tourist industry Clearly written and richly detailed this book offers new perspectives on a people who have adapted to new conditions while shaping their own destiny      The Congregationalist, 1925      Author Catalogue of Printed Books in European Languages National Library (India), 1956      The Literary News Frederick Leypoldt, 1891      Publishers' Weekly, 1894      Both Sides of the Bullpen Robert S. McPherson, 2017-10-19 Between 1880 and 1940 Navajo and Ute families and westward trending Anglos met in the bullpens of southwestern trading posts to barter for material goods As the products of the livestock economy of Navajo culture were exchanged for the merchandise of an industrialized nation a wealth of cultural knowledge also changed hands In Both Sides of the Bullpen Robert S. McPherson reveals the ways that Navajo tradition fundamentally reshaped and defined trading practices in the Four Corners area of southeastern Utah and southwestern Colorado Drawing on oral histories of Native peoples and traders collected over thirty years of research McPherson explores these interactions from both perspectives as wool blankets and silver crossed the counter in exchange for flour coffee and hardware To succeed traders had to meet the needs and expectations of their customers often interpreted through Navajo cultural standards From the organization of the post building to gift giving health care and burial services and a credit system tailored to the Navajo calendar every feature of the trading post served trader and customer alike Over time these posts evolved from ad hoc business ventures or profitable cooperative stores into institutions with a clearly defined set of expectations that followed Navajo traditional practices Traders spent their days evaluating craft work learning the financial circumstances of each Native family following economic trends in the wool and livestock industry back east and avoiding conflict In detail and depth the many voices woven throughout Both Sides of the Bullpen restore an underappreciated era to the history of the American Southwest They show us that for American Indians and white traders alike in the Four Corners region during the late 1800s and early 1900s barter was as much a cultural expression as it was an economic necessity The Bookman ,1897 Indian-made Erika Marie Bsumek,2008 In works of silver and wool the Navajos have established a unique brand of American craft And when their artisans were integrated into the American economy during the late nineteenth century they became part of a complex cultural and economic framework in which their handmade crafts conveyed meanings beyond simple adornment Bsumek unravels the layers of meaning that surround the branding of Indian made When Navajo artisans produced their goods collaborating traders tourist industry personnel and even ethnologists created a vision of Navajo culture that had little to do with Navajos themselves And as Anglos consumed Navajo crafts they also consumed the romantic notion of Navajos as primitives perpetuated by the marketplace These processes of production and consumption reinforced each other creating a symbiotic relationship and influencing both mutual Anglo Navajo perceptions and the ways in which Navajos participated in the modern marketplace Ultimately Bsumek shows that the sale of Indian made goods cannot be explained solely through supply and demand It must also reckon with the multiple images and narratives that grew up around the goods themselves integrating consumer culture tourism and history to open new perspectives on our understanding of American Indian material culture BOOK JACKET Transcript of the Enrollment Books New York (N.Y.).
