Delights, 2018-06-05 Earthly Delights brings together a number of substantial and original scholarly studies by international scholars currently working on the history of food in the Ottoman Empire and East Central Europe. It offers new empirical research as well as surveys of the state of scholarship in this discipline with special emphasis on influences, continuities and discontinuities in the culinary cultures of the Ottoman Porte, the Balkans and East Central Europe between the 17th and 19th centuries. Some contributions address economic aspects of food provision, the development and transnational circulation of individual dishes and the role of merchants, diplomats and travellers in the transmission of culinary trends. Others examine the role of food in the construction of national and regional identities in contact zones where local traditions merged or clashed with imperial Ottoman, Habsburg and West European influences. From Ruth's Kitchen with Love Ruth Glasberg Gold, 2010-09-30 As a multi-faceted author, gracious hostess and cook, Ruth has long been admired by her many friends who have been invited to her dinners. One cannot forget her multi-ethnic specialties among them: Romanian eggplant salad, Colombian Ajiaco, potato soup, Bukovinian Schmettentorte, sour cream cake, to name just a small sampling of her culinary repertoire. French gastronome Jean Brillat-Savarin once remarked that the discovery of a new dish does more for the happiness of the new race than the discovery of a star. George Bernard Shaw also believed that there was no love more sincere than the love of food. A sampling of the recipes from this book readily confirms both opinions. Vladimir F. Wertsman, author of What's Cooking in Multicultural America, Scarecrow Press, 1996. This is an unpretentious cookbook designed for epicurean tastes. It is also a tribute to the women of various ethnic backgrounds who left us the legacy of fine cuisine which I hope to pass on to future generations. The majority of these recipes are from Bukovina, once Northern Romania and other countries which were once part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Some of the Bukovinian dishes are almost legendary in their nostalgia. Many have never before been documented and most probably have never been featured on restaurant menus. I have wandered across four continents and have experienced life under monarchies, communism and fascism, all of which I survived. These multiple acculturations were extremely difficult but had also some positive effects, one of them being the acquisition of a myriad of recipes. I am pleased to share with you some of them in the hope that you will enjoy this adventure as much as I did. Ruth Glasberg Gold The Romanian Scene Henry Baerlein, 1945 His to Guard (The Vampire's Past 2) Rosa Swann, 2018-08-20 What can you do when your past doesn't just show up when you don't want it to but it seems out to bring you down once and for all? Sean. It's only been a few weeks since Jules moved into my place. Everything seemed to be going well until he freaked out as we were leaving a gay club. Someone is after him. I don't know who but it scares him a lot and I need to guard him from more pain. I can't see him get hurt again. And why did Jules' older brother talk to me but doesn't want Jules to know about it? Jules. Just as I thought that I may have escaped my problems, the vampire hunter who nearly killed me seven years ago shows up at the club I'm at with Sean. Now I'm in a scramble to protect not just myself but also Sean because I can't let him get harmed. When my old housemate shows up at the college after classes, all hell breaks loose and I realise
