

The Act 5 Romeo and Juliet study guide can be used as a scaffold, reading quiz, group work, or individual study. An extensive answer key is provided. Students will develop an understanding of the plot and practice citing strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis. While the cognitive complexity of the questions falls within levels three and four of Dr. Norman L. Webb's renowned Depth of Knowledge framework, sentence stems are included to provide differentiation for those students who struggle with articulating sophisticated analysis (Plymouth Community School Corporation, 2004). If you are looking for questions on levels one and two of Webb's Depth of Knowledge framework, this is not the resource for you. There are also clear learning objectives that align with the questions, guiding learners through a comprehensive analysis of the play.

Clear Learning Objectives

Act 5, Scenes 1-2

- I can observe and describe how textual details reveal complexities in characters' decision-making as I read, discuss, and complete the study guide for Act 5, Scenes 1-2 of Romeo and Juliet.
- I can observe and describe how symbolism and personification reveal complexities in characters' decision-making as I read, discuss, and complete the study guide for Act 5, Scenes 1-2 of Romeo and Juliet.

Guiding Question: 5.1 Respond to the following statement: Euthanasia is the practice of intentionally ending a person's life to relieve suffering, especially when they are terminally ill or experiencing unbearable pain. It can be voluntary, meaning the person who dies has requested it, or involuntary, where the decision is made by a power of attorney (POA), which is a legal arrangement that grants someone authority to act on someone else's behalf in legal, financial, or medical matters. Euthanasia is a highly debated and ethically complex issue, with various legal and cultural perspectives around the world. Where do you stand on the debate on euthanasia?

5.2. Respond to the following statement: Did you try to travel during the COVID crisis? Did authorities prevent you from traveling due to fear of spreading the virus?

Act 5, Scene 3

- As I read, discuss, and complete the study guide for Act 5, Scene 3 of Romeo and Juliet, I can observe the butterfly effects of the characters' choices in this complex story.

Guiding Question: Write the definition of scourge on your bellwork. Use a sentence to articulate the impact of an author using an oxymoron. Ox Scourge means to whip or beat severely, especially as a form of punishment, and/or to cause great suffering or harm to someone or something. Write a sentence wherein scourge is used metaphorically. For example, if someone describes a disease as "the scourge of the community," they are using "scourge" metaphorically to convey the idea that the disease is causing widespread suffering and harm, much like a physical scourge would inflict upon someone who is whipped.

Standards

RI.1 Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

RI.2 Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze in detail its development over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped and refined by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.

RI.3 Analyze how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop over the course of a text, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the themes.

RI.4 Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the consistent or shifting impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone.

RI.5 Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure a text, order events within it, and manipulate time create such effects as mystery, tension, or surprise.

W.8 Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

AP English Literature and Composition Skills

Character (C100) Identify and describe what specific textual details reveal about a character, that character's perspective, and that character's motives.

Setting (S101) Describe the relationship between a character and a setting (The environment a character inhabits provides information about that character).

Structure (S102) The dramatic situation of a narrative includes the setting and action of the plot and how that narrative develops to place characters in conflict(s), and often involves the rising or falling fortunes of a main character or set of characters.

Figurative Language (F103) Distinguish between the literal and figurative meanings of words and phrases. Explain the function of specific words and phrases in a text.
