University on the Border Lis Lange,Vasu Reddy,Siseko H. Kumalo,2021-08-27 The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall The text offers theoretical insights from a historical contemporary and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution idea and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity which is framed in the book as the border The volume proposes the concept of the border recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution the university

TMS 2015 144th Annual Meeting & Exhibition, Annual Meeting Supplemental Proceedings The Minerals, Metals & Materials Society (TMS),2016-12-20 Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development Polly Stupples,Katerina Teaiwa,2016-10-26 Visual artists craftspeople musicians and performers have been supported by the development community for at least twenty years yet there has been little grounded and critical research into the practices and politics of that support

This new Routledge book remedies that omission and brings together varied perspectives from artists policy makers and researchers working in the Pacific Africa Latin America and Europe to explore the challenges and opportunities of supporting the arts in the development context The book offers a series of grounded analyses which cover strategies for the sustainability of arts enterprises innovative evaluation methods theoretical engagements with questions of art agency and social change artists entanglements with legal and structural frameworks processes of cultural mapping and the artist donor interface The creative economy is increasingly recognized as a driver of development and this book also investigates the contribution made by the arts to the processes of international development and considers how those processes can best be supported by development agencies Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development gives scholars of Development Studies Social and Cultural Geography Anthropology Cultural Policy Cultural Studies and Global Studies a contextually and thematically diverse range of insights into this emerging research field Signaling in the Phytomicrobiome Donald L. Smith, Valérie Gravel, Étienne Yergeau, 2017-08-10 A plant growing under field conditions is not a simple individual it is a community We now know that there is a community of microbes associated with all parts of the plant and that the root associated community is particularly large This microbial community the phytomicrobiome is complex regulated and the result of almost half a billion years of evolution Circumstances that benefit the plant generally benefit the phytomicrobiome and vice versa Members of the holobiont modulate each other's activities in part through molecular signals acting as the hormones of the holobiont The plant plus the phytomicrobiome constitute the holobiont the resulting entity that is that community The phytomicrobiome is complex well developed and well orchestrated and there is considerable potential in managing this system The use of biologicals will develop during the 21st century and play as large a role as agro chemistry did in the 20th century Biologicals can be deployed to enhance plant pathogen resistance improve plant access to nutrients and improve stress tolerance They can be used to enhance crop productivity to meet the expanding demands for plant material as food fibre and fuel They can assist crop plants in dealing with the more frequent and more extreme episodes of stress that will occur as climate change conditions continue to develop The path is clear and we have started down it there is a considerable distance remaining Governance as a Catalyst for Public Sector Sustainability Baporikar,

Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution

Explorations in Southern African Drama, Theatre and Performance Patrick J. Ebewo, 2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for university students specialising in the performing arts As such the book will appeal to academics theatre scholars cultural workers and arts administrators arts practitioners and entrepreneurs the tourism industry arts educators and development communication experts DesignBuild in Postcolonial Contexts: A Critical Interrogation Vera Simone Bader, In diesem Buch betrachten neun Autorinnen die Lernmethode DesignBuild im postkolonialen Kontext Anhand konkreter Beispiele wird die handlungsorientierte Vorgehensweise kritisch hinterfragt und evaluiert Dabei liegt ein Fokus auf den Auslandseinsätzen europäischer und US-amerikanischer Studierender die in f r sie
