Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, 2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa's quest of resolving its own challenges. The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans. This book is a valuable reference tool for activists, retired and practicing politicians, governments, policymakers, practitioners, stakeholders, researchers, students, and academicians.

Fools' Gold Salafranca, Arja, 2019-12-06. An anthology of selected short stories, all of which were previously published in an individual writer's collection or in either Stray or The Bed Book of Short Stories published by Modjaji Books. Several of the authors went on to win awards for their collections (see below), and one of the stories was shortlisted for the Caine Prize. Modjaji has a proud history of publishing debut short story collections that are successful in literary and sales terms. There are few other publishers who take the risk of publishing debut short story collections.

Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-10-11. Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy, development, education, and more. As the use, acceptance, and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases, it is crucial to explore how this community-based knowledge provides deeper insights, understanding, and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving. Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics, culture, language, history, socio-economic development, methodologies, and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world, as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local, national, and global scale. Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives, intergenerational cultural transfer, and ethnicity and identity, this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists, policymakers, anthropologists, instructors, researchers, academicians, and graduate-level students in a variety of fields.

State-owned enterprises in Africa and the economics of public service delivery Fulufhelo G. Netswera, Omololu M. Fagbadebo, Nirmala Dorasamy, 2023-03-01. This book intends to provide a continuous assessment of the crisis in governance in Africa. As it is, there are huge deficits in the capacity of African states to harness vast human and material resources to promote good governance. This manifests in pervasive corruption, collapsed service delivery, collapsed state-owned enterprises, eroded social trust, capital flight, escalating levels of poverty, and wars, human insecurity, and stunted growth. The public sector is the pulse of service delivery because the entire governance system revolves around the sourcing of materials and services mostly from the private sector in order to achieve its public policy intents. The procurement process therefore ordinarily ought to yield positive economic outcomes and an efficiency-driven system in favour of the government.

itself and its service recipients However this more often than not is not the case Despite its enormous wealth the African continent is in an economic quagmire a dilemma that requires multi facet research activities This is the motivation for this book

Indigenous Archives in Postcolonial Contexts Mpho Ngoepe,Sindiso Bhebhe,2023-12-06 Indigenous Archives in Postcolonial Contexts revisits the definition of a record and extends it to include memory murals rock art paintings and other objects Drawing on five years of research and examples from Zimbabwe Botswana and South Africa the authors analyse archives in the African context Considering issues such as authentication ownership and copyright the book considers how murals and their like can be used as extended or counter archives Arguing that extended archives can reach people in a way that traditional archives cannot and that such archives can be used to bridge the gaps identified within archival repositories the authors also examine how such archives are managed and authenticated using traditional archival principles Presenting case studies from organisations such as Gay and Lesbian Memory in Action Archives GALA and heritage projects such as the Makgabeng Open Cultural Museum the authors also analyse Indigenous family praises and songs and explore how such records are preserved and transmitted to the next generation Indigenous Archives in Postcolonial Contexts demonstrates how the voices of the marginalised can be incorporated into archives Making an important contribution to the effort to decolonise African archives the book will be essential reading for academics and students working in archival studies library and information science Indigenous studies African studies cultural heritage history and anthropology

Incomplete Without My Brother, Adonis Kaizer Mabhilidi Nyatsumba,2014-07-22 We walked on a patch of grass that seemed to have been burnt a few hours earlier with soot covering our feet There in front of us lay my beloved brother Adonis lifeless his body facing up There were numerous stab wounds on his body including his face and his lumber jacket was half burnt Thus begins Kaizer Nyatsumba s tragic story of his twin brother s horrible murder It is also an intriguing look into aspects of South African life hitherto unknown to many They were twins of a special kind the closest of friends and each other s confidantes Their mothers were sisters they were inseparable when they grew up they were the first graduates in the extended family and were the ones the family depended on for leadership When Adonis was brutally murdered in the Pretoria area in June 2009 Kaizer was shattered and his life irrevocably changed A part of him died with Adonis and he has yet to come fully to terms with the loss A very private man the author bares his soul in this book

Cultivating Seeds of Hope Murray Coetzee,Retief Moller,L. D. Hansen,2015-05-01 This publication is a collection of 40 oral testimonies about Beyers Naud but also about the apartheid era in general and about the role that Christianity played in that period In addition to an abundance of insights on Beyers Naud by those who knew him best it offers perspectives on the movements and entities that Naud associated himself with for example the

Christian Institute the South African Council of Churches and the people involved in both Stories unfold of faith and suffering as well as betrayal all against the background of an overtly racist apartheid state and by implication against a capitalist system with class divisions that degraded human beings and denied their human dignity Nothing Left to Steal Mzilikazi Wa Afrika, 2014-08-20 This tell all memoir reveals the details behind Sunday Times journalist Mzilikazi wa Afrika's exposure of the R1 7 billion lease scandal between police commissioner Bheki Cele and property tycoon Roux Shabangu for which he was infamously arrested in 2010 It is also the riveting account of how a neglected boy in an unknown village became one of South Africa's most awarded investigative reporters and found himself at the receiving end of the corruption that had defeated those he helped put in power Fearless in the face of corrupt authorities with sinister political motives and fervent about justice Wa Afrika's life was characterised by resistance to oppression and inequality from an early age Destined to defend and uphold the principles of democracy his story is the inspiring tale of an ordinary man armed with a pen who challenged the proverbial giant Mandela's Kinsmen Timothy Gibbs, 2014 Mandela's Kinsmen is the first study of the fraught relationships between the ANC leadership and their relatives who ruled apartheid's foremost tribal Bantustan the Transkei In the early 20th century the chieftaincies had often been well springs of political leadership In the Transkei political leaders such as Mandela used regionally rooted clan schooling and professional connections to vault to leadership they crafted expansive nationalisms woven from these kin identities But from 1963 the apartheid government turned South Africa's chieftaincies into self governing tribal Bantustans in order to shatter African nationalism While historians often suggest that apartheid changed everything African elites being eclipsed by an era of mass township and trade union protest and the chieftaincies co-opted by the apartheid government there is another side to this story Drawing on newly discovered accounts and archives Gibbs reassesses the Bantustans and the changing politics of chieftaincy showing how local dissent within Transkei connected to wider political movements and ideologies Emphasizing the importance of elite politics he describes how the ANC in exile attempted to re-enter South Africa through the Bantustans drawing on kin networks This failed in KwaZulu but Transkei provided vital support after a coup in 1987 and the alliances forged were important during the apartheid endgame Finally in counterpoint to Africanist debates that focus on how South African insurgencies narrowed nationalist thought and practice he maintains ANC leaders calmed South Africa's conflicts of the early 1990s by espousing an inclusive nationalism that incorporated local identities and that Mandela's kinsmen still play a key role in state politics today Timothy Gibbs is a Lecturer in African History University College London Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Swaziland Botswana Jacana Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Dr Marian Burchardt, Dr Rijk van Dijk, Ms Thera Rasing, Professor Hansjörg Dilger, 2014-09-28 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes

The Scientific Imagination in South Africa William Beinart, Saul Dubow, 2021-05-20 An innovative three hundred year exploration of the social and political contexts of science and the scientific imagination in South Africa The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next

Tracing the Domestic Pig Goran Kušec, Ivona Djurkin Kušec, 2024-07-10 The appearance of the domestic pig today is shaped mainly by the economic expectations of us humans Today's pig has superior reproductive fattening and carcass traits compared to its ancient ancestors This could not be achieved without the highly effective support of scientific research aimed at revealing the genetic basis underlying the important economic traits of pigs and the involvement of novel technologies in phenotyping these animals both in vivo and post mortem Yet the research is spreading beyond the biological issues connected to the production of pigs and their products The latest developments in computer science and informatics technology enable us to collect and store information from all stages in the production of food leading back to its origin Questions about the breed the way the pigs were raised how were they managed and how they were processed into a wide palette of products can be answered by the use of methodologies developed by data scientists and those from the fields of different omics All this information can be passed along the chain to consumers in a repeatable manner The producers can use these data to manage such complex issues as meat or product quality And this closes the circle Tracing the domestic pig is an attempt to present the current knowledge about this valuable animal its origin composition and the food that it gives us and to predict or foresee what can happen to this species in the time to come
