Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa, Denver A. Webb, 2024-08-20 South Africa's higher education sector is rooted in the country's divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go

Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel,2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa's quest of resolving its own challenges. The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans. This book is a valuable reference tool for activists, retired and practicing politicians, governments, policymakers, practitioners, stakeholders, researchers, students and academicians. The Road to Soweto Julian Brown, 2016

Conclusion Consequences Bibliography Index Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa

Cuthbeth Tagwirei, 2025-09-29. Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa examines protest movements through the lens of Apartheid Studies, the first general theory of apartheid which explores how oppression, harm, injustice, poverty, loss and inequality persist. The book argues that apartheid, which breaks the world of the oppressed into fragments, fomenting diverse experiences of oppression among its victims, frames the nature and course of protests by making them subject to its fragmentation. Protest is thus redefined as good neighbourly and demoted on account of its symbiotic relationship to apartheid. It is observed that the proliferation of protests does not preclude the persistence of apartheid. Rather, protest and apartheid are seen to be compatible. By examining protest hashtags on X from South Africa and Zimbabwe, the book explores and identifies the forms, relations, meanings, trajectories and effects protests take, evoke and embody as fragments subsisting in a fractured apartheid universe. It demonstrates how and why life goes on amidst protest, sheds light on the contradictions, paradoxes and complexities that characterise protest movements and invites conversations around protest as a paradigm in the context of apartheid. The book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movements, protests, sociology, African Studies and communication and media studies. Cultivating Seeds of Hope Murray Coetzee, Retief Moller, L. D. Hansen, 2015-05-01. This publication is a collection of 40 oral testimonies about Beyers Naud but also about the apartheid era in general and about the role that Christianity played in that period. In addition to an abundance of insights on Beyers Naud by those who knew him best, it offers perspectives on the movements and entities that Naud associated himself with, for example the Christian Institute, the South African Council of Churches and the people involved in both. Stories unfold of faith and suffering as well as betrayal, all against the background of an overtly racist apartheid state and by implication against a capitalist system with class divisions that degraded human beings and denied their human dignity. Public Administration and Governance in Democratic South Africa Izimangaliso Malatjie, Busani

Ngcaweni, Thanyani S. Madzivhandila, Mzukisi Qobo, 2024-07-08. There is a national emergency and it has become more pronounced as South Africa faces challenges of ethical leadership in both the private and public sector. Recently the Zondo Commission, Public Investment Corporation (PIC) Commission and Courts of Law released reports that cast light on the conduct of public officials. There have also been several reports by the Special Investigating Unit (SIU) dealing with the same matter. This phenomenon is not only unique to South Africa. Reports of multinational companies that have been implicated in unethical and corrupt abound These include corporate scandals such as those of Enron WorldCom Nortel and AIG These malfeasances have demonstrated abundantly that corporate leaders are not immune to unethical behaviour Bedi Alpasla Naidoo 2012a What this showed is that the issue of ethics is important in the public sector The Archaean Geology of the Kaapvaal Craton, Southern Africa Alfred Kröner, Axel Hofmann, 2019-02-20 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the evolution of one of the oldest and best exposed Archaean cratons on this planet There is currently a renewed interest in the early Earth and the Kaapvaal craton has long served as a model for early crustal evolution This unique multidisciplinary resource features information on geology tectonics geochemistry and geochronology It offers a wealth of new data on various aspects of the craton as well as contributions on the various crustal units by international specialists

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past Cuba, Africa, and Apartheid's End Isaac Saney, 2023-01-09 Cuba Africa and Apartheid's End Africa's Children Return examines the history and impressive dimensions of the Cuban Revolution's solidarity with Africa Cuba's role in the southern African national liberation and anti colonial struggle was the largest and most consequential manifestation of the island's commitment to Africa A key moment was the 1987 1988 battle of Cuito Cuanavale which involved Cuba and Angola on one side and South Africa and its allies on the other Cuito Cuanavale contributed the end of apartheid and has assumed legendary status within the Cuban Revolution and the southern African liberation movement Trade and

Industrial Development in Africa Moyo, Theresa, 2015-03-02 This book revisits the perennial challenge that scholars economists and politicians have been grappling with since the 1960s Development in this book has been defined in a context that projects it as a multidimensional and complex process which seeks to enhance the human social economic and cultural welfare of the people This book calls for a rethinking of trade and industry for Africa's development It uses data drawn from national development plans and strategies and trade and industry issues have been prioritized at the continental level in key policy documents On the whole Africa's industry and trade performance have been poor in spite of national regional and continental plans The contributors to this volume propose some alternative strategies and policies which are necessary for trade and industry to grow and to contribute to the well being of Africa s people It calls for a developmental trade and industry policy which fundamentally must be people centred African states should invest time energy and resources to develop policies which will take into consideration African realities The different contributors are aware that Africa has experienced strong economic growth in the recent past but this growth has largely been due to a strong demand for Africa s primary commodity exports It has also been a result of increases in productivity and domestic investment and remittances from Africans living in the Diaspora It is important to note that despite this unprecedented growth performance the impact of trade and industry on development has been limited The book argues that a structural transformation of Africa s economies is inevitable if Africa is to achieve the shift from the dominant paradigm of production and export of primary goods The various contributors to this book agree that there is need to rethink policy and strategy in order to achieve industrial development in Africa There is no unique solution or answer that can fit all situations as African countries are not the same While Africa can draw lessons from other regions which have successfully industrialized this book argues that policies and strategies will have to be adapted to country specific situations and circumstances
