Comics and Agency Vanessa Ossa, Jan-Noël Thon, Lukas R. A. Wilde, 2022-11-21 This volume aims to intensify the interdisciplinary dialogue on comics and related popular multimodal forms including manga graphic novels and cartoons by focusing on the concept of medial mediated and mediating agency To this end a theoretically and methodologically diverse set of contributions explores the interrelations between individual collective and institutional actors within historical and contemporary comics cultures Agency is at stake when recipients resist hegemonic readings of multimodal texts In the same manner authorship can be understood as the attribution of agency of and between various medial instances and roles such as writers artists colorists letterers or editors as well as with regard to commercial rights holders such as publishing houses or conglomerates and reviewers or fans From this perspective aspects of comics production authorship and institutionalization can be related to aspects of comics reception appropriation and discursivation and circulation participation and canonization including their potential for transmedialization and making contributions to the formation of the public sphere
