ekphraseis of Hagia Sophia is that of light Light is described as the decisive element in the experience of the sacred space and light is simultaneously associated with the notion of wisdom It is argued that the concepts of light and wisdom are interwoven programmatic elements that underlie the unique architecture and non figurative decoration of Hagia Sophia A similar concern for the phenomenon of light and its epistemological dimension is reflected in other contemporary monuments testifying to the pervasiveness of these aesthetic values in early Byzantium Christ on the Throne of Power and Antichrist Fortune Charles Brown,1885 Lectures on the History of Moral Philosophy in England William Whewell,1852 Lectures in Christian Dogmatics Jean Zizioulas,John D. Zizioulas,2008-01-01 In this landmark publication one of the most eminent Christian theologians of our time Metropolitan John D Zizioulas gives his account of the fundamental teachings of Christian theology Zizioulas presents Christian doctrine as a comprehensive account of the freedom that results from our relationship with God The true genius of this book is that it lays out complex ideas with the utmost simplicity whilst illustrating the grandeur of Christian teaching and providing a profound exploration of human freedom Lectures on Rhetoric and Criticism Stevenson MacGill,1838 The British Quarterly Review Henry Allon,1876 Church Quarterly Review ,1895 The Church Quarterly Review Arthur Cayley Headlam,1895 Lectures Explanatory of the Diatessaron, Or The History of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, John David Macbride,1835 An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures Thomas Hartwell Horne,1846 The Living Church ,1956 Lectures explanatory of the Diatessaron, or the life of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, collected from the four Evangelists [by J.D. Macbride]. John David Macbride,1824 The Eucharist in Bible and Liturgy G. D. Kilpatrick,1983 The book will be of interest to ministers of religion and students of theology Muhammad in the Seminary David D. Grafton,2024-09-10 Uncovers what Christian seminaries taught about Islam in their formative years Throughout the nineteenth century Islam appeared regularly in the curricula of American Protestant seminaries Islam was not only the focus of Christian missions but was studied as part of the history of the Church as well as in the new field of comparative religions Moreover Arabic was taught as a cognate biblical language to help students better understand biblical Hebrew Passages from the Qur'an were sometimes read as part of language instruction Christian seminaries were themselves new institutions in the nineteenth century Though Islam had already been present in the Americas since the beginning of the slave trade it was only in the nineteenth century that the American public became more aware of Islam and had increasing contact with Muslims It was during this period that extensive trade with the Ottoman empire emerged and more feasible travel opportunities to the Middle East became available due to the development of the steamship Providing an in depth look at the information about Islam that was available in seminaries throughout the nineteenth century Muhammad in the Seminary examines what Protestant seminaries were teaching about this tradition in the formative years of pastoral education In charting how American Christian leaders ideas about Islam were shaped by their seminary experiences this volume offers new insight into
