The Book of the Sacred Magic Abramelin the Mage,2020-09-28 Owing perhaps to the circumstance that the indispensable B decker accords only a three or four line notice to the Biblioth que de l Arsenal but few English or American visitors to Paris are acquainted with its name situation or contents though nearly all know at least by sight the Biblioth que Nationale and the Biblioth que Mazarin This Library of the Arsenal as it is now called was founded as a private collection by Antoine Ren Voyer D Argenson Marquis de Paulny and was first opened to the public on the 9th Flor al in the fifth year of the French Republic that is to say on 28th April 1797 or just a century ago This Marquis de Paulny was born in the year 1722 died in 1787 and was successively Minister of War and Ambassador to Switzerland to Poland and to the Venetian Republic His later years were devoted to the formation of this Library said to be one of the richest private collections known It was acquired in 1785 by the Comte D Artois and to day belongs to the State It is situated on the right bank of the Seine in the Rue de Sully near the river and not far from the Place de la Bastille and is known as the Biblioth que de l Arsenal In round numbers it now possesses 700 000 printed books and about 8000 manuscripts many of them being of considerable value Among the latter is this Book of the Sacred Magic of Abra Melin as delivered by Abraham the Jew unto his son Lamech which I now give to the public in printed form for the first time Many years ago I heard of the existence of this manuscript from a celebrated occultist since dead and more recently my attention was again called to it by my personal friend the well known French author lecturer and poet Jules Bois whose attention has been for some time turned to occult subjects My first mentioned informant told me that it was known both to Bulwer Lytton and liphas L vi that the former had based part of his description of the Sage Rosicrucian Mejnour on that of Abra Melin while the account of the so called Observatory of Sir Philip Derval in the Strange Story was to an extent copied from and suggested by that of the Magical Oratory and Terrace given in the Eleventh Chapter of the Second Book of this present work Certainly also the manner of instruction applied by Mejnour in Zanoni to the Neophyte Glyndon together with the test of leaving him alone in his abode to go on a short journey and then returning unexpectedly is closely similar to that employed by Abra Melin to Abraham with this difference that the latter successfully passed through that test while Glyndon failed It would also be especially such experiments as those described at length in the Third Book which the author of the Strange Story had in view when he makes Sir Philip Derval in the MS history of his life speak of certain hooks describing occult experiments some of which he had tried and to his surprise found succeed The world's most powerful magic spells and writings:Esoteric techniques to create success and wealth and neutralize your enemies
