An introduction to dream interpretation Javier Castillo Colomer, 2014-03-17 The long personal and professional experience of Dr Javier Castillo allows him to finally come to the conclusion in line with the Jungian idea that dreams are a phenomenon of nature and must be understood as what they are The contents that come from the unconscious neither want to hide distort or fool us but speak in its own language the language of images Dr Theodor Abt Another of the fundamental characteristics of this work is the description of the different interpretive frameworks that occur in the psychotherapeutic practice of dream analysis The experience of Dr Castillo in Freudian Reichian and Jungian analysis allows the reader to have a deep insight into the various analytical maps and he makes a clear organized and systematic description of the different forms of interpretation which will be helpful for anyone who wants to further deepen their knowledge of this subject Dr Antonio Sanfeliu Translating Home in the Global South Isabel C. Gómez, Marlene Hansen

Esplin, 2023-11-30 This collection explores the relationships between acts of translation and the movement of peoples across linguistic cultural and physical borders centering the voices of migrant writers and translators in literatures and language cultures of the Global South To offer a counterpoint to existing scholarship this book examines translation practices as forms of both home building and un homing for communities in migration Drawing on scholarship from translation studies as well as eco criticism decolonial thought and gender studies the book s three parts critically reflect on different dimensions of the intersection of translation and migration in a diverse range of literary genres and media Part I looks at self translation collaboration and cocreation as modes of expression born out of displacement and exile Part II considers radical strategies of literary translation and the threats and opportunities they bring in situations of detention and border policing Part III looks ahead to the ways in which translation can act as a powerful means of fostering responsibility solidarity and community in building an inclusive multilingual public sphere even in the face of climate crisis This dynamic volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies migration and mobility studies postcolonial studies and comparative literature London Quarterly and Holborn Review ,1870 Quarterly Review ,1869 The Age of the Democratic
