Mathai,2019-02-07 Hymns and songs have long been the most frequent and characteristic expression of communal beliefs particularly among faith traditions that lack authoritarian or rigidly codified doctrinal statements Even among Christian traditions that do include a strong focus on creeds catechism and liturgy it is hymnody more than anything else that sustains their lay theology The hymns of Moshe Walsalam Sastriyar 1847 1916 and Sadhu Kochukunju Upadeshi 1883 1945 both from the Kingdom of Travancore in southwest India transcend denominational boundaries and have been embraced far beyond their historical communities of origin as a means of articulating faith and spirituality Against a missionizing backdrop of western dominated hymnody and theology these songs and writings from the fringes of colonialism were embraced by local communities and became their chosen expression of faith As such they evoked a lay consciousness quite distinct from official theologies of the church In Walsalam and Kochukunju along with other Christian writers of their period and culture we see a unique inter weaving of local traditions and the global Christian message one that transformed social and spiritual relationships for individuals and their communities alike
