The Spanish Ambassadors Suitcase Stories From The Diplomatic Bag:

The Spanish Ambassador's Suitcase Matthew Parris, 2012-10-04 The Spanish Ambassador's Suitcase is a hilarious new collection of diplomatic tales by Matthew Parris and Andrew Bryson. Heard the one about the Spanish Ambassador who arrived in the scorching Saharan desert fully suited and with a mysteriously enormous suitcase? Or the horse they gave Prime Minister John Major in Turkmenistan which hapless embassy officials had to rescue from the clutches of the Moscow railway? These and other funnies as they are known in Whitehall are included in Matthew Parris and Andrew Bryson's glorious new volume of not-so-diplomatic writing which accompanies a new BBC Radio 4 series. It is a follow-up to their acclaimed collection of ambassadors' final despatches Parting Shots. Drawn from Freedom of Information requests and previously overlooked Valedictories, these startling despatches throw a revealing light on how the British have viewed the world and unwittingly perhaps on how the world has viewed the British. Praise for Parting Shots: Parting Shots is unbuttoned indiscreet and very funny. Yorkshire Post Fascinating if sometimes uncomfortable reading. Financial Times Very funny. Guardian After working in the Foreign Office then serving as a Conservative MP, Matthew Parris joined The Times in 1988. He writes two weekly columns for The Times and one for the Spectator and in 2011 won the Best Columnist Award at the British Press awards. His acclaimed autobiography Chance Witness was published by Penguin in 2003. He is a frequent broadcaster. Andrew Bryson is a radio journalist working in the BBC's Business and Economic Unit. He frequently works as a producer on Radio 4's Today programme and on Radio 5 Live.

A Surgeon with Stilwell Alan K. Lathrop, 2018-10-10 United States Army surgeon John H. Grindlay served in the China Burma India Theater of World War II in 1941-1944. Drawing on his unpublished war diary and letters, this book sheds new light on the conduct of battlefield medicine in the tropics and provides a new perspective on such personalities as General Joseph W. Stilwell, the famed Burma Surgeon Dr. Gordon S. Seagrave, and Chiang Kai-shek. Stilwell's famous 1942 walkout/retreat from Burma to India is covered along with the 1943 Allied return to Burma to push the Japanese from the Ledo Road connecting northeast India to southwestern China.

British Embassies James Stourton, 2017-10-05 A unique and glamorous book about British Imperial and post-Imperial architecture and a lively and evocative read for anyone interested in the international projection of British power and culture. British Embassies have a special role in our history. They represent our country in bricks and stone and have often expressed at least in the eyes of foreigners our national character. Whether they are Lutyens buildings in Washington, grand palaces in Europe, beautiful old colonial buildings in Asia, or secure compounds in the Middle East, they all have stories to tell and reveal the changing face of British diplomacy. A mixture of history, architectural description, diplomacy, and anecdote, this large-format picture book covers Residences and embassies in twenty-six countries to provide an authoritative text accompanied by newly commissioned photography.

Diplomatic Gifts Paul Brummell, 2022-01-27 Gifts have been part of international relations since ancient times. They can serve as tokens of friendship, apology, or authority, as taunts, bribes, boasts, or tricks. They can also go wrong.

Mali's 2013 gift of a camel to French President François Hollande was reported to have ended up in a tagine Exploring fifty diplomatic gifts given through the ages Brummell explains the great complexity of this political art an exercise in brand building for the giver via an item that must suit the recipient's own interests and character Byzantine emperors sent fragments of the True Cross to fellow Christian rulers around Europe Kings Louis XV and XVI of France used Sèvres porcelain while the Ottoman sultans favoured robes of honour In some cases recipients have made no secret of the gift they would want The Amarna Letters dating to around 1350 BCE record a communication from Hittite Prince Zita to the Egyptian Pharaoh offering sixteen men and hinting rather heavily that he would like some gold in return From the Trojan Horse to Cleopatra's Needle to the Statue of Liberty this rich history offers a new take on both the curious detail and the grand spectacle of global politics

Social Closure and International Society Tristen Naylor, 2018-12-07 Laying the foundations of a theory of international social closure this book examines how actors compete for a seat at the table in the management of international society and how that competition stratifies the international domain In a broad historical survey from the Family of Civilised Nations through the Great Powers club to the G7 and G20 today Naylor investigates the politics of membership in the exclusive clubs that manage international society and ensure its survival providing us with a new way to think about how status competition has changed over time and what this means for international politics today With its sociologically grounded theory this book advances English School scholarship and transforms the study of contemporary summitry providing a ground breaking approach rooted in archival research elite interviews and ethnographic participant observation This book is of interest to international relations scholars interested in the expansion and globalisation of international society the history of international summits and transformations in international order as well as to those examining concepts including stratification hierarchy and networked governance With its emphasis on non state actors in global governance scholars and practitioners alike working on for civil society will also find this research of great value

Fracture Matthew Parris, 2020-11-05 A Times Biography of the Year I learned a lot reading this the strength of Fracture is that it is very much like a cracking radio script entertaining and easy to digest Spectator Ada Lovelace Frederick Douglass Vladimir Lenin Marie Curie Frieda Kahlo Carl Jung Tupac Shakur All geniuses who changed the world in ways that still influence our lives today And all men and women who experienced in childhood trauma so severe that it should have broken them completely While presenting Great Lives on Radio 4 Matthew Parris noticed a trend in the lives of the exceptional people the programme covered many of them had been marked by extreme trauma and deprivation They seemed to have succeeded not only in spite of their backgrounds but perhaps even because of them As Matthew Parris brings each individual's story to life in this original and compelling study it becomes clear that we must rethink the origins of success as well as the legacy of trauma
