The Four Gospels, as Interpreted by the Early Church Francis Henry Dunwell,1876 Covering Up Luther Rustin E. Brian,2013-03-13 Karl Barth s Christology provides a key to out narrating the Deus absconditus which as Rustin Brian contends is in fact the god of modernity Included in this is the rejection of the logical and philosophical systems that allow for the modern understanding of God as the Deus absconditus namely dialectics and nominalism This rejection is illustrated interestingly enough in Barth s decision to literally cover up with a rug Martin Luther s works in his personal library Surely this was more than a decorative touch The reading of Barth s works that results from this starting point challenges much of contemporary Barth scholarship and urges readers to reconsider Barth Through careful examination of a large body of Barth s writings particularly in regard to the issues of the knowledge or knowability of God as well as Christology Brian argues that contemporary Barth scholarship should be done in careful conversation with the finest examples of both Protestant and especially Roman Catholic theology Barth s paradoxical Christology thus becomes the foundation for a dogmatic ecumenicism Barth s Christology then just might be able to open up possibilities for discussion and even convergence within a church that is anything but one The Ministry, Vol. 10, No. 02 Various Authors,2006-03-01 This issue of The Ministry
