Werner Sollors Reader Werner Sollors, 2025-01-31 Born in Silesia raised in the Frankfurt area and educated in Berlin Werner Sollors has spent most of his career at Harvard University in the United States and is regarded in Cornel West's words as one of the finest scholars that we have on race and cultural hybridity in both this country and the world This Reader offers the first comprehensive overview of the work of a central figure in the field of ethnic studies The pieces collected here range from Puritan New England to contemporary Germany from Exodus to Mary Antin's Promised Land from the Curse of Ham to Teju Cole They attest to Sollors deep historical sensibilities his attention to textual detail and his awareness of the costs and opportunities of both cosmopolitan ideals and particularist commitments whilst addressing a central question why does modernisation take the form of ethnicisation in many places around the globe The collected essays are complemented by a detailed introduction by Daniel G Williams which foregrounds some of the key emphases and tensions in Sollors writings

The New Hemingway Studies Suzanne del Gizzo, Kirk Curnutt, 2020-09-17 The subject of endless biographies fictional depictions and critical debate Ernest Hemingway continues to command attention in popular culture and in literary studies He remains both a definitive stylist of twentieth century literature and a case study in what happens to an artist consumed by the spectacle of celebrity The New Hemingway Studies examines how two decades of new millennium scholarship confirm his continued relevance to an era that on the surface appears so distinct from his one defined by digital realms ecological anxiety and globalization It explores the various sources print archival digital and other through which critics access Hemingway Highlighting the latest critical trends the contributors to this volume demonstrate how Hemingway's remarkably durable stories novels and essays have served as a lens for understanding preeminent concerns in our own time including paranoia trauma iconicity and racial sexual and national identities
