THE TALE OF TWO BAD MICE, or, THE TALE OF TWO NAUGHTY MICE Beatrix Potter, 2018-10-01 The Tale of Two Bad Mice is a children's book written and illustrated by Beatrix Potter and published by Frederick Warne Co in September 1904. If the book were published today it would most likely be titled The Tale of Two Naughty Mice, which, having read the book, is far more appropriate. The tale is about two mice who vandalize a dollhouse. After finding the food on the dining room table made of plaster, they smash the dishes, throw the doll clothing out the window, tear the bolster, and carry off a number of articles to their mouse hole. When the little girl who owns the dollhouse discovers the destruction, she positions a policeman doll outside the front door to ward off any future depredation. The two mice atone for their crime spree by putting a crooked sixpence in the doll's stocking on Christmas Eve and sweeping the house every morning with a dust pan and broom. Potter took inspiration for the tale from two mice caught in a cage trap in her cousin's home and a dollhouse being constructed by her editor and publisher Norman Warne as a Christmas gift for his niece Winifred. While the tale was being developed, Potter and Warne fell in love and became engaged, much to the annoyance of Potter's parents, who were grooming their daughter to be a permanent resident and housekeeper in their London home. The tale's themes of rebellion, insurrection, and individualism reflect not only Potter's desire to free herself of her domineering parents and build a home of her own, but her fears about independence and her frustrations with Victorian domesticity. The book was critically well received and brought Potter her first fan letter from America. The tale was adapted to a segment in the 1971 Royal Ballet film The Tales of Beatrix Potter and to an animated episode in the BBC series The World of Peter Rabbit and Friends. Merchandise inspired by the tale includes Beswick Pottery porcelain figurines and Schmid music boxes. YESTERDAY'S BOOKS FOR TOMORROW'S CHARITIES 10% of the profit from the sale of this book will be donated to charities. KEYWORDS TAGS Tale of Two Bad Mice Mouse Beatrix Potter children's stories doll's house theft destruction atonement Christmas Gift love engagement policeman doll front door depredation crooked sixpence stocking clean house keep house sweep The Tale of Two Bad Mice Beatrix
