The Pirate of the Mediterranean. A tale of the sea, etc William Henry Giles Kingston, 1859 Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 1988 Fleet Air Arm Boys Steve Bond, 2020-11-18 A history of the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm since 1945 featuring a survey of the aircraft flown the conflicts fought and the daily life of those in service The RAF's continuing role in the projection of air power in the defence of the United Kingdom and its overseas interests since the end of the Second World War is well known However the same cannot always be said about the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm FAA in part due to the ten year gap between the retirement of the Harrier and the arrival of the F 35B and the Queen Elizabeth class aircraft carriers Flying high performance aircraft off a carrier demands not only a high level of skill but also a considerable amount of courage and determination not least to land back on a very small piece of real estate bobbing about in a rough sea often at night with no possibility of diversion The nature of these operations has meant that the accident rate and aircrew losses were very high and accepted as part of the job With the arrival of the Queen Elizabeth and the Prince of Wales it is time to redress the balance and bring the FAA's extraordinary story to the audience it so richly deserves through the words of those air and ground crews who have been part of it since 1945 What emerges is an amazing close knit esprit de corps often accompanied by a long standing and still simmering rivalry between the RAF and the Royal Navy over who should project air power overseas Enormous respect is shown by the aviators and ships senior officers for the aircraft handlers and maintainers who work long hours in a highly dangerous environment on the flight deck This first volume looks chronologically at every aircraft type flown in an air defence role since 1945 Involvement in conflicts including Korea Suez the Falklands Bosnia and elsewhere is included and perforce the cost in human lives even in everyday operations frequently emerges Balancing this are the everyday grind the good times the humour the runs ashore and the sense of pride in a job well done All delivered in the words of the men themselves Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1976 From 1894 95 1935 36 pt 6 of each volume is issued separately with titles 1894 95 1902 03 Code list of merchant vessels of the United States 1903 04 1935 36 Seagoing vessels of the United States Merchant Vessels of the United States United States.
