Menendez,2015-02-13 I have titled this short story The Dancing Will Never End A Short Story of a Love Affair If a person takes into consideration the time we began going steady till Cleos death we spent over Sixty Years together Ours was not the type of love which is written about in fictional love stories The romantic love left after a while As this superficial romantic love faded true love took hold The romantic love was but the soil and fertilizer which allowed our true love to flourish and grow so deeply Having said this our relationship and love affair was not a life spent kissing or lovie dovie never having an argument or agreeing on everything Our love if viewed by an outside observer would not manifest itself as any different as the relationship one may observe of any other married couple But it was different we had become truly one and this was our love affair In our relationship we learned to listen to each other make compromises and respect each other We not only listened to each other we made decisions together Separation or divorces were words which were never part of our vocabulary This action was one we would never have contemplated We learned to accept each others faults adjust our own behavior so as to meld with each other We loved each other enough to work out any problem or disappointment even when something hurtful had been said Our love was like poets have written An unconditional love that is most understanding and a vulnerable love that supports comforts and is DETERMINED TO TRIUMPH OVER EVERY CHALLENGE OR ADVERSITY IT MAY ENCOUNTER I first fell in love with Cleo at the Sadie

Hawkins Dance We professed our love to each other at our high school Sock hop dance We danced all of our lives till Cleos medical condition did not allow doing so As long as I am alive and neither my memory or mental acuity fails me the dancing will never end

Teachers Responding to Religious Diversity in Europe.

Researching Biography and Pedagogy Anna van der Want, Cok Bakker, Ina ter Avest, Judith Everington, 2009 Currently all European societies are experiencing a transformation process towards greater cultural and religious pluralisation Teachers need new answers to turn religious diversity into a resource for peaceful coexistence not a cause of misunderstanding division and hostility Through a qualitative approach we follow the different strategies of teachers to cope with religious diversity in the classrooms of six European countries from Estonia to France from Norway to England from Germany to the Netherlands The juxtaposition of biographical information on the teachers together with their views on religious diversity and their strategies in responding to it provides a well rounded and extremely attractive impression of the attitudes of teachers in Europe The role of the teacher takes on great significance He or she has to meet the twin demands of offering both a solid basis of factual information and the opportunity to formulate individual interpretations and opinions The readers of this book are offered the opportunity to gain insight into the field of the study at two levels They can access the findings of the analyses of the respective national contexts and the European comparison At the same time they are able to study portraits of all of the teachers interviewed in the course of the project so that the collation of data is complemented by insight into the human perspective and the influence of national contexts This is valuable for readers as it offers material for discussions and seminars in the field of education on two very different levels the portraits as working material report of the commissioner of education ,1879
