ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , Getting Skills Right: South Africa OECD,2017-07-10

This report identifies effective strategies to tackle skills imbalances in South Africa Scholarship Models around the Globe - Embracing Diversity, New Trends and Opportunities Katherine Meltzoff,Elsa Justino,Ines Casquilho-Martins,2025-05-14

Scholarship Models Around the Globe Embracing Diversity New Trends and Opportunities offers a comprehensive exploration of global higher education funding systems and their impact on students' academic journeys and career trajectories. With a focus on equity, inclusion, and the challenges faced by historically marginalized groups, this volume provides insights into diverse scholarship models across different regions. By examining the interplay between financial support and access to higher education, the book highlights both the successes and limitations of various funding initiatives. It explores social mobility, fosters sustainable development, and addresses systemic inequalities while offering policy recommendations for more inclusive and effective programmes. Engaging with comparative case studies from Africa, Latin America, the Middle East, and beyond, this volume is an essential resource for researchers, educators, and policymakers seeking to understand the evolving dynamics of higher education funding. Rich with diverse perspectives, this book highlights emerging trends and innovative practices, making it an essential part of the ongoing conversation on educational equity and the future of global scholarship programs Urban Geography in South Africa Ruth Massey,Ashley Gunter,2019-08-17 This book embraces South Africa and its place in the Global South, providing a succinct theoretical and empirical analysis and discussion of urban issues in the country. There have been sporadic calls from the Urban Geography community for the development of an overarching and comprehensive text that explores contemporary processes and practices taking place in urban South Africa and more widely the Global South. This is an edited collection of chapters by leading urban theorists and practitioners working on various themes within urban South Africa and serves as a base for scholars and students interested in urban perspectives from countries in the Global South Going to University Case, Jennifer,Marshall, Delia,2018-02-09

Around the world, more young people than ever before are attending university. Student numbers in South Africa have doubled since democracy, and for many families, higher education is a route to a better future for their children. But alongside the overwhelming demand for higher education, questions about its purposes have intensified. Deliberations about the curriculum, culture, and costing of public higher education abound from student activists, academics, parents, civil society, and policy makers. We know from macro research that South African graduates generally have good employment prospects. But little is known at a detailed level about how young people actually make use of their university experiences to craft their life courses. And even less is known about what happens to those who drop out. This accessible book brings together the rich life stories of 73 young people six years after they began their university studies. It traces how going to university influences not only their employment options but also nurtures the agency needed to chart their own way and to engage critically with the world around them The book offers deep insights into the ways in which public higher education is both a private and public good and it provides significant conclusions pertinent to anyone who works in and cares about universities
