The Small Room A Novel:

The Small Room May Sarton, 1999-12-31 Heyerwood: a Novel Lauren Gilbert, 2011-05-25 HEYERWOOD A Novel is a romantic historical novel set in the Georgian Regency period in England The story of a woman learning to cope with power and control at a time when women traditionally had little power at all this book may appeal to readers of history fans of historical novels and admirers of classic Regency novels alike Seen in RTBOOK Reviews and JANE AUSTEN S REGENCY WORLD reader s review by E Paquette I just finished reading Heyerwood in two days and thoroughly enjoyed it What a warm Cinderella story Wowmy only criticism is it ended too soon I want 200 more pages I want a sequel I really really had a wonderful time with your book Im waiting for the sequel Napoleon In Germany, Louisa of Prussia and Her Times; A Historical Novel Louise Mühlbach, 2023-02-11 Reproduction of the original Intrigue Allan Hepburn, 2008-10-01 Intrigue examines the tradition of the spy narrative in the 20th century setting the historical contexts for the main themes of the genre such as the Cambridge spy ring the Profumo Affair Hepburn offers a systematic theory of the conventions attractions of espionage fiction The Fatal Three: A Novel (Complete) Mary Elizabeth Braddon, I m afraid she will be a terrible bore said the lady with a slight pettishness in the tone of a voice that was naturally sweet How can she bore us love She is only a child and you can do what you like with her said the gentleman My dear John you have just admitted that she is between thirteen and fourteen a great deal more than a child a great overgrown girl who will want to be taken about in the carriage and to come down to the drawing room and who will be always in the way Had she been a child of Mildred s age and a playfellow for Mildred I should not have objected half so much I m very sorry you object but I have no doubt she will be a playfellow for Mildred all the same and that she will not mind spending a good deal of her life in the schoolroom Evidently John you don t know what girls of fourteen are I do Naturally Maud since it is not so many years since you yourself were that age The lady smiled touched ever so slightly by the suggestion of youth which was gratifying to the mother of a seven year old daughter The scene was a large old fashioned drawing room in an old fashioned street in the very best quarter of the town bounded on the west by Park Lane and on the east by Grosvenor Square The lady was sitting at her own particular table in her favourite window in the summer gloaming the gentleman was standing with his back to the velvet draped mantelpiece The room was full of flowers and prettinesses of every kind and offered unmistakable evidence of artistic taste and large means in its possessors The lady was young and fair a tall slip of a woman who afforded a Court milliner the very best possible scaffolding for expensive gowns The gentleman was middle aged and stout with strongly marked features and a resolute straightforward expression The lady was the daughter of an Irish peer the gentleman was a commoner whose fortune had been made in a great wholesale firm which had still its mammoth warehouses near St Paul s Churchyard and its manufactory at Lyons but with which John Fausset had no longer any connection He had taken his capital out of the business and had cleansed himself from the stain of commercial dealings before he married the Honourable Maud Donfrey third daughter of Lord Castle Connell Miss Donfrey had given herself very willingly to the commoner albeit he was her senior by more than twenty years and in her own deprecating description of him was quite out of her set She liked him not a little for his own sake and for the power his strong will exercised over her own weaker nature but she liked him still better for the sake of wealth which seemed unlimited She was nineteen at the time of her marriage and she had been married nine years Those years had brought the Honourable Mrs Fausset only one child the seven year old daughter playing about the room in the twilight and maternity had offered very little hindrance to the lady's pleasures as a woman of fashion She had been indulged to the uttermost by a fond and admiring husband and now for the first time in his life John Fausset had occasion to ask his wife a favour which was not granted too readily It must be owned that the favour was not a small one involving nothing less than the adoption of an orphan girl in whose fate Mr Fausset was interested It is very dreadful sighed Mrs Fausset as if she were speaking of an earthquake We have been so happy alone together you and I and Mildred Yes dearest when we have been alone which you will admit has not been very often O but visitors do not count They come and go They don't belong to us This dreadful girl will be one of us or she will expect to be I feel as if the golden circle of home life were going to be broken Not broken Maud only expanded O but you can't expand it by letting in a stranger Had the mother no people of her own no surroundings whatever nobody but you who could be appealed to for this wretched girl inquired Mrs Fausset fanning herself wearily as she lolled back in her low chair She wore a loose cream coloured gown of softest silk and Indian embroidery and there were diamond stars trembling amongst her feathery golden hair The flowing garment in which she had dined alone with her husband was to be changed presently for white satin and old Mechlin lace in which she was to appear at three evening parties but in the meantime having for once in a way dined at home she considered her mode of life intensely domestic The seven year old daughter was roaming about with her doll sometimes in one drawing room sometimes in another There were three opening into each other the innermost room half conservatory shadowy with palms and tropical ferns Mildred was enjoying herself in the quiet way of children accustomed to play alone looking at the pretty things upon the various tables peering in at the old china figures in the cabinets the ridiculous Chelsea shepherd and shepherdess the Chelsea lady in hawking costume with a falcon upon her wrist the absurd lambs and more absurd foliage and the Bow and Battersea ladies and gentlemen with their blunt features and coarse complexions Mildred was quite happy prowling about and looking at things in silent wonder turning over the leaves of illustrated books and lifting the lids of gold and enamelled boxes trying to find out the uses and meanings of things Sometimes she came back to the front drawing room and seated herself on a stool at her mother's feet solemnly listening to the conversation following it much more earnestly and comprehending it much better than either her father or mother would have supposed possible

Louisa of Prussia and Her Times Luise Mühlbach, 1867 Leading with the Chin Brad Congdon, 2018-01-01 Leading with the Chin focuses on the Esquire writings of James Baldwin Truman Capote Raymond Carver Don DeLillo Norman Mailer and Tim O'Brien to examine how these authors negotiated important shifts in American masculinity Using the works of these six authors as case studies Leading with the Chin argues that Esquire permitted writers to confront national fantasies of American masculinity as they were impacted by the rise of neoliberalism civil rights and gay rights and the cultural dominance of the professional managerial class Applying the methodologies of periodical studies and the theoretical concerns of masculinity studies this book recontextualizes the prose and fiction of these authors by analyzing them in the material context of the magazine Relating each author s articulation of masculinity to the advertisements editorials and articles published in each issue Leading with the Chin shows that Esquire reflected and helped to shape the forces that structured American masculinity in the twentieth century Nancy. A Novel Rhoda Broughton,2023-11-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1874

The Red-House mystery, a novel Duchess,Margaret Wolfe Hungerford,1893 The Rejuvenation of Miss Semaphore; A Farcical Novel Charlotte O'Conor Eccles,2023-10-12 Reproduction of the original The publishing house Megali specialises in reproducing historical works in large print to make reading easier for people with impaired vision

The Shakespeare Conspiracy - A Novel Ted Bacino, 2010

Two questions have always plagued historians how could Christopher Marlowe a known spy and England's foremost playwright be suspiciously murdered and quickly buried in an unmarked grave just days before he was to be tried for treason How could William Shakespeare replace Marlowe as England's greatest playwright virtually overnight when Shakespeare had never written anything before and was merely an unknown actor The Shakespeare Conspiracy is a historical novel that intertwines the two mysteries and then puts the pieces together to offer the only possible resolution

Martin Eden (1909) by Jack London . NOVEL Jack London, 2018-10-21 Martin Eden is a 1909 novel by American author Jack London about a young proletarian autodidact struggling to become a writer It was first serialized in The Pacific Monthly magazine from September 1908 to September 1909 and published in book form by Macmillan in September 1909 Eden represents writers' frustration with publishers by speculating that when he mails off a manuscript a cunning arrangement of cogs immediately puts it in a new envelope and returns it automatically with a rejection slip citation needed The central theme of Eden's developing artistic sensibilities places the novel in the tradition of the Künstlerroman in which is narrated the formation and development of an artist
