Edward Irenaeus Prime-Stevenson, Under the pseudonym Xavier Mayne the journalist and world traveler Edward Irenaeus Prime Stevenson self published the novel Imre A Memorandum in 1906 Based on the axiom The Friendship which is Love the Love which is Friendship the author develops a special relationship between a young hungarian officer and an intellectual and sensitive middle aged man After many doubts equivocal exchanges and dodged expectations attraction will end up becoming stronger than prudence and the force of social pressures A friendship dissected down to its limits leads to a declaration of love in this regulated military society and the social context of the Belle poque A fascinating novel written by an author who is a pioneer of fundamental rights for homosexuals Memorandum from the Iowa Cloud Appreciation Society Joseph G. Peterson, 2022-11-04 When his girlfriend Rosemary asks about his life Jim Moore a successful salesman whose territory covers the entire continental United States and parts of Canada doesn't think there is anything to say and so he tells her nothing happened or maybe he doesn't know how to put it all into words or maybe he doesn't want to Stuck in an airport because of blizzard conditions and packed into a crowded terminal with other travelers Moore has come to believe that his life is not worth reporting about because it has largely been a life lived without incident However chance encounters with a yoga instructor a man traveling to bury his mother and an enigmatic woodsman reawaken long dormant emotions about his father's suicide and cause Jim to newly reflect on his own life and on a memorandum that he later discovered in his deceased father's papers which lists all the names of the clouds and which Jim now from time to time recants as if it were his own private kaddish to memorialize his lost father Like the pilgrims in Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales who pass the time telling stories while stranded in the Tabard Inn Memorandum from the Iowa Cloud Appreciation Society tells the tale of a traveling salesman and what really happened over the course of his forty six years The Annual monitor and memorandum
