The Stanner June 2014:

Australia 1901 - 2001 Andrew Tink, 2014-11-01 Andrew Tink's superb book tells the story of Australia in the twentieth century from Federation to the Sydney 2000 Olympics. A century marked by the trauma of war and the despair of the depression balanced by extraordinary achievements in sport science and the arts. A country underpinned by a political system that worked most of the time and the emergence of a mainly harmonious society. Australians at the start of the century could hardly have imagined the prosperity enjoyed by their diverse countrymen and women one hundred years later. Tink's story is driven by people whether they be prime ministers, soldiers, shopkeepers, singers, footballers or farmers, a mix of men or women, Australian born immigrants and Aborigines. He brings the decades to life writing with empathy, humour and insight to create a narrative that is as entertaining as it is illuminating. Nutrition Research Methodologies Julie A.

Lovegrove, Leanne Hodson, Sangita Sharma, Susan A. Lanham-New, 2015-03-30 A new book in the acclaimed Nutrition Society Textbook Series Nutrition Research Methodologies addresses the rapidly advancing field of nutrition research. It covers the diverse methodologies required for robust nutritional research to ensure thorough understanding of key concepts both for students at undergraduate and postgraduate levels and for scientists working in nutrition research. Combining theory with practical application, Nutrition Research Methodologies addresses both traditional research methods and new technologies and focuses on a range of complex topics including energy compensation, nutrient gene interactions and metabolic adaptation. It also considers statistical issues as well as application of data to policy development. Provides the reader with the required scientific basics of nutrition research in the context of a systems and health approach. Written specifically to meet the needs of individuals involved in nutrition research. Combines the viewpoints of world leading nutrition experts from academia and research with practical applications. Accompanied by a companion website with a range of self-assessment material. the last decade Australian governments have introduced a series of land reforms in communities on Indigenous land. This book is the first in-depth study of these significant and far-reaching reforms. It explains how the reforms came about, what they do and their consequences for Indigenous landowners and community residents. It also revisits the rationale for their introduction and discusses the significant gap between public debate about the reforms and their actual impact. Drawing on international research, the book describes how it is necessary to move beyond the concepts of communal and individual ownership in order to understand the true significance of the reforms. The book's fresh perspective on land reform and careful assessment of key land reform theories will be of interest to scholars of Indigenous land rights, land law, Indigenous studies and Aboriginal culture, not only in Australia but also in any other country with an interest in Indigenous land rights.

Cultural Memory and Literature Diane Molloy, 2015-10-20 Cultural memory involves a community's shared memories, the selection of which is based on current political and social needs. A past that is significant to a national group is reimagined.

by generating new meanings that replace earlier certainties and fixed symbols or myths This creates literary syncretisms with moments of undecidability The analysis in this book draws on Renate Lachmann s theory of intertextuality to show how novels that blur boundaries without standing in for history are prone to intervene in cultural memory A brief overview of Aboriginal politics between the 1920s and the 1990s in relation to several novels provides historical and political background to the links between and problems associated with cultural memory testimony trauma and Stolen Generations narratives which are discussed in relation to Sally Morgan s My Place and Doris Pilkington s Rabbit Proof Fence There follows an analysis of novels that respond to the history of contact between Aboriginal and settler Australians including Kate Grenville s historical novels The Secret River The Lieutenant and Sarah Thornhill as examples of a traditional approach David Malouf s Remembering Babylon charts how language and naming defined our early national narrative that excluded Aboriginal people Intertextuality is explored via the relation between Thea Astley s The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow Chloe Hooper s The Tall Man and the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody Kim Scott s Benang from the heart and That Deadman Dance and Alexis Wright s Carpentaria reflect a number of Lachmann s concepts syncretism dialogism polyphony Menippean satire and the carnivalesque Suggested is a new way of reading novels that respond to Australia s violent past beyond trauma studies and postcolonial theory to re imagine a different syncretic past from multiple perspectives A Theology of Land

Christopher Gerard Sexton,2019-07-01 On the face of things the spirituality of Australia s Aboriginals is hard to reconcile with a spirituality of Christian theology with its human centrism apt to a Son of God in Man made flesh in Jesus Christ Nevertheless this author Christopher Sexton a Sydney based lawyer drew on his deep Catholic theological beliefs and intense dialogue with Aboriginal elders to find a surprisingly common ground and in abundance The creation stories of each lay emphasis on humanity s stewardship for the search and its mystical riches Here is a book by a Christian lawyer who consulted widely and deeply with our First People s He found more in common between our distinct spiritualities than might be expected Proving once again that listening deeply to each other will often yield common ground Bennelong and Phillip

Kate Fullagar,2023-10-04 The first joint biography of Bennelong and Governor Arthur Phillip two pivotal figures in Australian history the colonised and coloniser and a bold and innovative new portrait of both Shortlisted for the 2025 National Biography Award Winner of the 2024 ACT Literary Award Non Fiction Winner of the Canberra Critics Circle Award 2024 History Biography Shortlisted for the 2024 Prime Minister s Literary Award Australian History Shortlisted for the 2024 NSW History Award Australian History Prize and NSW Community and Regional History Prize Shortlisted for the 2024 Age Book of the Year Non Fiction Shortlisted for the 2024 Ernest Scott Prize Shortlisted for the 2024 Magarey Medal for Biography 2023 Australian Book Review Books of the Year 2023 Sydney Morning Herald Best Reads of the Year Bennelong and Phillip were leaders of their two sides in the first encounters between Britain and Indigenous Australians Phillip the colony s first governor and Bennelong the Yiyura leader The pair have come to represent the conflict that flared and has never settled

Fullagar's account is also the first full biography of Bennelong of any kind and it challenges many misconceptions among them that he became alienated from his people and that Phillip was a paragon of Enlightenment benevolence. It tells the story of the men's marriages including Bennelong's best known wife Barangaroo and Phillip's unusual domestic arrangements and places the period in the context of the Aboriginal world and the demands of empire. To present this history afresh Bennelong Phillip relates events in reverse moving beyond the limitations of typical Western ways of writing about the past which have long privileged the coloniser over the colonised. Bennelong's world was hardly linear at all and in Fullagar's approach his and Phillip's histories now share an equally unfamiliar framing. Wayfinding M. R. O'Connor, 2024-03-26

In this marvel of storytelling a journalist pursues the mysteries of human navigation across continents and deep within the brain. Kirkus Reviews starred review. Biologists have been trying to solve the mystery of how organisms have the ability to migrate and orient with such precision especially since our own adventurous ancestors spread across the world without maps or instruments. In Wayfinding M. R. O'Connor goes to the Arctic the Australian bush and the South Pacific to talk to masters of their environment who seek to preserve their traditions at a time when anyone can use a GPS to navigate. O'Connor explores the neurological basis of spatial orientation within the brain and how exercising our cognitive mapping skills can improve the health of our hippocampus. She also talks to scientists studying how atrophy in the hippocampus is associated with afflictions such as impaired memory dementia Alzheimer's Disease depression and PTSD. Wayfinding is a captivating book that charts how our species' profound capacity for exploration memory and storytelling results in topophilia the love of place. A Cultural History of Law in the Modern Age Richard K. Sherwin, Danielle Celermajer, 2021-03-11. The period since the First World War has been a century distinguished by the loss of any unitary foundation for truth ethics and the legitimate authority of law. With the emergence of radical pluralism law has become the site of extraordinary creativity and on occasion a source of rights for those historically excluded from its protection. A Cultural History of Law in the Modern Age tells stories of human struggles in the face of state authority including Aboriginal land claims popular resistance to corporate power and the intergenerational ramifications of genocidal state violence. The essays address how and with what effects different expressive modes ceremonial dance live street theater the acoustics of radio the affective range of film to name a few help to construct memorialize and disseminate political and legal meaning. Drawing upon a wealth of visual textual and sound sources A Cultural History of Law in the Modern Age presents essays that examine key cultural case studies of the period on the themes of justice constitution codes agreements arguments property and possession wrongs and the legal profession.

Horror Literature from Gothic to Post-Modern Michele Brittany, Nicholas Diak, 2020-03-02. From shambling zombies to Gothic ghosts horror has entertained thrill seeking readers for centuries. A versatile literary genre it offers commentary on societal issues fresh insight into the everyday and moral tales disguised in haunting tropes and grotesque acts with many stories worthy of critical appraisal. This collection of new essays takes in a range of topics focusing on historic works such as

Ann Radcliffe's Gaston de Blondville 1826 and modern novels including Max Brooks World War Z Other contributions examine weird fiction Stephen King Richard Laymon Indigenous Australian monster mythology and horror in picture books for young children     Reducing Dietary Sodium and Improving Human Health Jacqui Webster, 2018-05-18 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Reducing Dietary Sodium and Improving Human Health that was published in Nutrients

Travelling Home, 'Walkabout Magazine' and Mid-Twentieth-Century Australia Mitchell Rolls, Anna Johnston, 2016-07-06 Travelling Home provides a detailed analysis of the contribution that the mid twentieth century Walkabout magazine made to Australia's cultural history Spanning five central decades of the twentieth century 1934 1974 Walkabout was integral to Australia's sense of itself as a nation By advocating travel both vicarious and actual Walkabout encouraged settler Australians to broaden their image of the nation and its place in the Pacific region In this way Walkabout explicitly aimed to make its readers feel at home in their country as well as including a diverse picture of Aboriginal and Pacific cultures Given its wide availability and distribution together with its accessible and entertaining content Walkabout changed how Australia was perceived and the magazine is recalled with nostalgic fondness by most if not all of its former readers Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship Travelling Home engages with key questions in literary cultural and Australian studies about national identity and modernity The book's diverse topics demonstrate how Walkabout canvassed subtle and shifting fields of representation as a result this analysis produces complex and nuanced readings of Australian literary and cultural history     Anthropologists and Their Traditions Across National Borders Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2014-11-01 Volume 8 of the Histories of Anthropology Annual series the premier series published in the history of the discipline explores national anthropological traditions in Britain the United States and Europe and follows them into postnational contexts Contributors reassess the major theorists in twentieth century anthropology including the work of luminaries such as Franz Boas Claude Lévi Strauss Bronisław Malinowski A R Radcliffe Brown and Marshall Sahlins as well as lesser known but important anthropological work by Berthold Laufer A M Hocart Kenelm O L Burridge and Robin Ridington among others These essays examine myriad themes such as the pedagogical context of the anthropologist as a teller of stories about indigenous storytellers the colonial context of British anthropological theory and its projects outside the nation state the legacies of Claude Lévi Strauss's structuralism regarding culture specific patterns cognitive universals reflected in empirical examples of kinship myth language classificatory systems and supposed universal mental structures and the career of Marshall Sahlins and his trajectory from neo evolutionism and structuralism toward an epistemological skepticism of cross cultural miscommunication     Imaging Identity Melinda Hinkson, 2016-08-18 Imaging Identity presents potent reflections on the human condition through the prism of portraiture Taking digital imaging technologies and the dynamic and precarious dimensions of contemporary identity as critical reference points these essays consider why portraits continue to have such galvanising appeal and perform fundamental work across so many social settings This multidisciplinary enquiry brings together artists art historians art theorists and anthropologists working with a variety of media Authors look beyond conventional ideas of the portrait to the wider cultural contexts governmental practices and intimate experiences that shape relationships between persons and pictures Their shared purpose centres on a commitment to understanding the power of images to draw people into their worlds Imaging Identity tracks a fundamental symbiosis to grapple with the workings of images is to understand something vital of what it is to be human Subverting Empire Will Jackson,Emily Manktelow,2015-07-15 Across their empire the British spoke ceaselessly of deviants of undesirables ne er do wells petit tyrants and rogues With obvious literary appeal these soon became stock figures This is the first study to take deviance seriously bringing together histories that reveal the complexity of a phenomenon that remains only dimly understood My Grandfather's Clock Graeme Davison,2023-09-05 A great aunt s bequest a 200 year old grandfather clock sends historian Graeme Davison on a journey deep into his father s family s past From their tribal homeland in the Scottish Borders he follows them to the garrison town of Carlisle from industrial Birmingham to Edwardian Australia and from the Great War to his own suburban childhood This is the story of an ordinary family s journey from frontier warfare and dispossession through economic turmoil and emigration to modest prosperity At each step we are led to reflect on the puzzles of personal identity and the mystery of time Based on a lifetime of creative scholarship My Grandfather's Clock is a moving testament to the power of family history to illuminate the present Reflexive Ethnographic Practice Amanda Kearney,John Bradley,2020-01-21 Putting the anthropological imagination under the spotlight this book represents the experience of three generations of researchers each of whom have long collaborated with the same Indigenous community over the course of their careers In the context of a remote Indigenous Australian community in northern Australia these researchers anthropologists an archeologist a literary scholar and an artist encounter reflexivity and ethnographic practice through deeply personal and professionally revealing accounts of anthropological consciousness relational encounters and knowledge sharing In six discrete chapters the authors reveal the complexities that run through these relationships considering how any one of us builds knowledge shares knowledge how we encounter different and new knowledge and how well we are positioned to understand the lived experiences of others whilst making ourselves fully available to personal change At its core this anthology is a meditation on learning and friendship across cultures Bridging the Divide between faith, theology and Life Anthony Maher,2015-11-01 This is a must read for practical theologians everywhere there is an engaging even unique freshness in the manner in which the authors choose their topics and develop their insights Rev Dr Gerald A Arbuckle S M Consultant Anthropologist and Co director Refounding and Pastoral Development Unit Sydney Australia This volume breaks new ground in providing a deeply contextual work of practical theology from Oceania The volume presents a dialogical practical theology that is open to wisdom from all sources and seeks mystical political transformation a much needed contribution to the international conversation in practical theology and to the global church Associate Professor
