transcends the limitations of previous case studies and offers a comprehensive cognitive panorama of how Chinese novels are rendered. The author explores the challenges and difficulties of translating Chinese fiction from the insider perspectives of British and American sinologists and cross validates their multiple voices by aligning them with cross cultural communication scenarios. Based on the cognitive construction model of translation, the book provides a systematic review of the translation thoughts and ideas of the community of sinologists in terms of linguistic conventions, narrative styles, contextual and cultural frames, readership categories and metaphorical models of translation. It envisions a new research path to enhance empirical research on translators' cognition in a dynamic translation ecosystem. The title will be an essential read for students and scholars of translation studies and Chinese studies. It will also appeal to translators and researchers interested in cognitive stylistics, literary studies and intercultural communication studies.

Dream of the Red Chamber Riccardo Moratto, Kanglong Liu, Di-kai Chao, 2022-12-15. This edited volume contains an excellent collection of contributions and presents various informative topics under the central theme: literary and translation approaches to China's greatest classical novel Honglouloumeng. Acclaimed as one of the Four Great Classical Novels of Chinese literature, Honglouloumeng, known in English as The Dream of the Red Chamber or The Story of the Stone, epitomizes 18th century Chinese social and cultural life. Owing to its kaleidoscopic description of Chinese life and culture, the novel has also exerted a significant impact on world literature. Its various translations, either full length or abridged, have been widely read by an international audience. The contributors to this volume provide a renewed perspective into Honglouloumeng studies by bringing together scholarship in the fields of literary and translation studies. Specifically, the use of corpora in the framework of digital humanities in a number of chapters helps re-address many issues of the novel and its translations from an innovative angle. The book is an insightful resource for both scholars of Chinese literature and for linguists with a focus on translation studies.

Style, Wit and Word-Play Tao Tao Liu, Chan Sin-wai, Laurence Wong, 2011-12-08. This collection of essays is dedicated to the memory of David Hawkes (1923-2009), who is remembered as a pre-eminent translator and interpreter of Chinese literature into English, his most famous work being the translation of the classic eighteenth century Chinese novel the Honglouloumeng or The Story of the Stone. The first part of the collection consists of studies on him and his works; the second part on the art of translation into English from Chinese literature. All the essays are written by scholars in the field from Britain, America, Australia and Hong Kong.

The most translated book in the world after the Bible, the Tao Te Ching or Book of the Tao is a guide to cultivating a life of peace, serenity and compassion. Through aphorisms and parable, it leads readers toward the Tao or the Way, harmony with the life force of the universe. Traditionally attributed to Lao Tzu, a Chinese philosopher thought to have been a contemporary of Confucius, it is the essential text of Taoism, one of the three major religions of ancient China. As one of the world's great works of wisdom literature, it still has much to teach us today, offering a practical model based on modesty and self restraint for living a balanced existence and for opening your mind freeing your thoughts and attaining greater self awareness With its emphasis on calm simplicity purity and non action it provides a time tested refuge from the busyness of modern life This new translation seeks to understand the Tao Te Ching as a guide to everyday living and encourages a slow meditative reading experience The Tao Te Ching s eighty one brief chapters are accompanied by illuminating commentary interpretation poems and testimonials by the likes of Margaret Mead Ursula K Le Guin and Dr Wayne W Dyer Specially commissioned calligraphy for more than two hundred Chinese characters illustrates the book s essential themes
