The Story Of Tonle:

The Story of Tönle Mario Rigoni Stern, 1998 Mario Rigoni Stern was born in 1921 in Asiago in the mountains of northeastern Italy Throughout his literary career he has remained deeply attached to the region of his birth its peasant customs its dialect its seasonal cycles and shifting historical fortunes Tonle Bintarn s story takes place in the mountains of the Veneto region which once bordered the Austro Hungarian Empire and where smuggling was a means of subsistence for the peasant population Having run afoul of a patrol of revenue agents Tonle must seek refuge beyond the frontier in Central Europe where year after year he lives by doing odd jobs and working among other things as an itinerant print peddler a horse trainer in Hungary and a gardener in a Prague castle But every winter he returns secretly to his home and family until finally a pardon is granted By now his children are grown and he has little to do but tend his sheep Meanwhile the times are changing social values are disintegrating under the impact of modernization and Europe moves ever closer to disaster During the devastation of the First World War the occupation and ultimate destruction of his village and his own internment in an Austrian camp it is Tonle s loyalty to his roots and his stubborn devotion to his task as a shepherd that persist and make him a quiet symbol of heroism and human endurance

The Mekong Ian Charles Campbell, 2009-11-20 The Mekong is the most controversial river in Southeast Asia and increasingly the focus of international attention It flows through 6 countries China Myanmar Laos Thailand Cambodia and Viet Nam The 4 downstream countries have formed the Mekong River Commission to promote sustainable development of the river and many of their people depend on it for their subsistence it has possible the largest freshwater fishery in the world and the Mekong waters support rice agriculture in the delta in Viet Nam which produces about 40% of that country s food as well as in Cambodia Laos and Thailand China is now building the first large mainstream dam on the river and has proposals for several more. These dams are likely to affect the downstream countries. The Canon in Southeast Asian Literatures David Smyth, 2000. The literary canon is one of the most lively areas of debate in contemporary literary studies. This set of essays is both timely and original in its focus on the canon in South East Asian literatures covering Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam. They vary in focus from the broad panoramic survey of trends in a national literature to very specific discussions of the role of individuals in shaping a canon or the place of a particular text within a tradition and from contemporary to traditional literature. They include discussions of the development of prose fiction, censorship and artistic freedom, the role of westerners in codifying indigenous literatures, the writing of literary history, the development of literary criticism and indigenous aesthetics.
