Campaigns and Elections Stephen K. Medvic, 2021-11-29 Stephen K Medvic's Campaigns and Elections is a comprehensive yet compact core text that addresses two distinct but related aspects of American electoral democracy the processes that constitute campaigns and elections and the players who are involved In addition to balanced coverage of process and actors it gives equal billing to both campaigns and elections and covers contests for legislative and executive positions at the national state and local levels including issue oriented campaigns of note The book opens by providing students with the conceptual distinctions between what happens in an election and the campaigning that precedes it Significant attention is devoted to setting up the context for these campaigns and elections by covering the rules of the game in the American electoral system as well as aspects of election administration and the funding of elections Then the book systematically covers the actors at every level candidates and their organizations parties interest groups the media and voters and the macro level aspects of campaigns such as campaign strategy and determinants of election outcomes The book concludes with a big picture assessment of campaign ethics and implications of the permanent campaign New to the Fourth Edition Fully updated through the 2020 elections looking ahead to the 2022 midterms Covers the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on the 2020 election as well as the January 6 2021 insurrection at the US Capitol Adds new sections in Chapter 3 on election integrity and the assessment of election administration Reviews recent Supreme Court cases on gerrymandering and faithless electors Expands coverage of social media as a source of news of the increasingly partisan nature of the media and of the role of media fact checking in campaigns and elections Reorganizes the chapters on the various actors so that the chapter on candidates leads directly to the chapter on campaigns Fully updates the resources listed at the end of each chapter

Electoral Politics in Africa since 1990 Jaimie Bleck, Nicolas van de Walle, 2019 First comprehensive analysis of electoral politics in Sub Saharan Africa since the democratic transitions of the early 1990s

The Battle for the White House from Bush to Obama A. Bennett, 2013-10-02 Anthony Bennett guides us through the events of the four elections of the 21st century showing how this era of partisanship has reshaped not only presidential nominations and elections but the American presidency and politics itself

The Struggle for Democracy Edward S. Greenberg, 1994-01-01 Democracy Betrayed Steven Rosenfeld, 2018-03-06 An impassioned takedown of the undemocratic features of American electoral politics and their role in the 2016 election Americans are taught to cherish our democracy especially our right to vote But after the 2016 presidential election we are confronted yet again with the reality that our system is neither free nor fair Almost every step along the way is filled with intentional and unintentional pitfalls barriers and dysfunction The results disadvantage discourage and ultimately disenfranchise but a myth persists that our elections and democracy are exemplary Our system is adept at preempting the very citizens whose participation would upend governing classes and economic elites That's done by making voting more complicated less accountable and resistant to reform Whether we're talking about voter ID laws superdelegates convoluted state recount rules or the archaic Electoral College procedures have greater weight than democratic principles or evidence based determinations Democracy Betrayed catalogs the long litany of ways our elections failed and continue to fail their billing as model democracy It will look through the lens of impassioned skepticism highlighting what went wrong and conveying why that need not be the case More people registered to vote in 2016 than ever before even if turnout was about the same as 2012 That shows people want a system they can believe in This book will speak to them and show them how they can fight for a better democracy

Democratic Struggle, Institutional Reform, and State Resilience in the African Sahel Leonardo A. Villalón, Rahmane Idrissa, 2020-02-06 Long on the periphery of both academic research and international attention the countries of the West African Sahel currently find themselves at the center of global concerns over security terrorism migration and conflict Since the early 1990s the Sahelian states have also been engaged in political struggles over the construction of democratic institutions Edited by Leonardo A Villalón and Abdourahmane Idrissa Democratic Struggle Institutional Reform and State Resilience in the African Sahel addresses a key and little studied question How have the politics of democratization across the Francophone Sahel shaped processes of state building and with what effects on the resilience of state institutions Starting from the premise that variation in the politics of institution building and institutional reform although most frequently justified and debated in terms of democratization have differing impact on the construction of resilient states this book examines these processes in six francophone states of the Sahel Senegal Mauritania Mali Burkina Faso Niger and Chad The contributors represent a set of distinguished scholars from across the region many of whom have also been important actors in the struggles they analyze
