Close Encounters of the Urban Kind Jennifer Brozek, 2010-04 We ve all heard the stories of what happens to those who go to lovers lane and of the folly of flashing your lights at another car at night We all know someone who knows someone that survived a meeting with Bloody Mary and another who picked up a hitchhiker that then disappeared And we all know these stories aren t true They re just urban legends Right Wrong Sometimes the stories we hear are true Often they re more than they seem These are the urban legends with alien explanations and the alien encounters mistaken for urban legends The line between one and the other is so blurred in this anthology of stories about Close Encounters of the Urban Kind that you will never look another urban legend the same way again Featuring stories by Alma Alexander Nathan Crowder Carole Johnstone Pete Kempshall Jennifer Pelland Erik Scott de Bie Bev Vincent and many others The Little Boy Cook Joe Baxter Davis, 2012-04-13 Joe Baxter Davis tells the story of his family who lived on a farm in Equality Alabama Daddy worked in town as an auto body man and painter Some of the time Mama taught school across the county and only was home only on the weekends So my older brother Winston and my younger brother Michael and I did the farm work We raised food to eat and to trade at the local store for things we could not raise We took care of the animals built fences cut wood to heat the house milked the cows and all the other chores Even though we were young boys we were farmers Mama and Daddy depended on us It may be hard to understand today what our farm life was like in the 1940s but we all worked very hard to provide for our family it was our way of life When I was eight I had to have surgery on my leg for osteomyelitis a bone disease After a long time in the hospital I went back to the farm but I was on crutches and could not do the farm work with my brothers But guess what Mama and Daddy had a plan They asked me to be the family cook So in 1945 I became the full time cook I was so happy I had always loved to watch Mama cook but now it was my job I would get up early in the morning and help build fires in the fireplace and in the little kitchen stove then I would make home made biscuits and cook bacon and sausage and eggs for the family I was the full time cook I enjoyed cooking so much and my brothers and Mama and Daddy acted like they really enjoyed the food Maybe they were just hungry the Little Boy Cook is a collection of good old county recipes and memories from the past and recipes from family and friends
