children's education and how educators can communicate more effectively with immigrant families. Mi Padre also shows the consequences of deportation based immigration policies on elementary school education and offers strategies for supporting students and their families in the classroom. The author stresses the importance of learning from and with families and offers practical suggestions for how to build relationships with all caregivers as a counterpractice to the one size fits all schooling that many teachers, students and families experience today. By highlighting fathers with a deep longing for the benefits and opportunities that a good education can offer their children, Sarah Gallo has documented how these men redefine what it means to be engaged in their children's schooling. Teachers, teacher educators, researchers and others will all benefit from this beautiful and powerful book. Sonia Nieto, professor emerita, University of Massachusetts Amherst. A compelling and lucid example of activist scholarship rooted in rigorous ethnographic inquiry, a must read for pre and inservice teachers grappling with how to work in solidarity with families that are threatened by racism and exclusionary notions of citizenship. Gerald Campano, University of Pennsylvania, author of Partnering with Immigrant Communities.

Behavioral Assessment in Schools Edward Steven Shapiro, Thomas R. Kratochwill, 2000-06-13. A landmark text, this volume systematically addresses the issues involved in developing behavioral assessment strategies for educational rather than clinical settings. The theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of widely used assessment methods are discussed and their strengths and limitations evaluated. Attention is given to legal and professional issues, decision making processes in educational diagnosis and culturally sensitive assessment practices.
