Inventing the Myth Connal Parr,2017-07-21 This book approaches Ulster Protestantism through its theatrical and cultural intersection with politics re establishing a forgotten history and engaging with contemporary debates Anchored by the perspectives of ten writers some of whom have been notably active in political life it uniquely examines tensions going on within Through its exploration of class division and drama from the early twentieth century to the present the book restores the progressive and Labour credentials of the community s recent past along with its literary repercussions both of which appear in recent decades to have diminished Drawing on over sixty interviews unpublished scripts as well as rarely consulted archival material it shows contrary to a good deal of clich d polemic and safe scholarly assessment that Ulster Protestants have historically and continually demonstrated a vigorous creative pulse as well as a tendency towards Left wing and class politics St John Ervine Thomas Carnduff John Hewitt Sam Thompson Stewart Parker Graham Reid Ron Hutchinson Marie Jones Christina Reid and Gary Mitchell profoundly challenge as well as reflect their communities Illuminating a diverse and conflicted culture stretching beyond Orange Order parades the weaving together of the lives and work of each of the writers highlights mutual themes and insights on their identity as if part of some grander tapestry of alternative twentieth century Protestant culture Ulster Protestantism s consistent delivery of such dissenting voices counters its monolithic and reactionary reputation Tribune for Victory and Socialism ,1986 A Glasgow Trilogy George Friel,2009-05-01 Distinguished by irony compassion and the author s own dry wit these three novels paint a memorable picture of life in the streets schools and tenements of Glasgow in the 1950s and 60s With a unique vision of loneliness old age sexual longing hot young blood and youth s casual cruelty George Friel s books explore a dark comedy of tangled communication human need and fading community All these elements come together in the humorous parable of greed religion and slum youth that is The Boy Who Wanted Peace in the fate of old and disturbed Miss Partridge who is obsessed with the innocence of young Grace and in the mental collapse of Mr Alfred a middle aged school teacher who is in love with one of his pupils The humour realism and moral concern of Friel s work clearly anticipate and stand alongside the novels of Alan Spence Alasdair Gray William McIlvanney and James Kelman Bookseller ,1998 Mademoiselle ,1974-05
