Harold,2017-03-05 To Make the World Intelligible A Scientist s Journey is both a book about a life of science and about the science of life In it Franklin M Harold shares the story of his life as a German immigrant who lived in the Middle East before coming to America and finding his place in life as a scientist But Harold s story does not stand in isolation It is set against the heyday of biochemistry and molecular biology a time when the staid science of biology was being transformed from a descriptive study of animals and plants into an intense inquiry into how living things work at the level of cells and molecules Harold then builds on this backdrop by sharing some of his research and that of his mentor and Nobel Prizewinner Peter Mitchell as well as his insights and reflections on life as a phenomenon of nature The accessible comprehensive and yet lyrical way that Harold accomplishes this is a testament to his belief that a scientist s raison d e tre is to make the world intelligible God and the Natural World Ted Peters,Marie Turner,2020-05-01 This collection of essays is a fitting tribute to Denis Edwards who was one of Australia s leading theologians In exploring the most challenging questions of our time these essays canvas some of the great themes of Christian theology that were the focus of Edwards research Denis Edwards was a theologian of dialogue dialogue with our rich theological tradition dialogue with science dialogue with contemporary theologians The contributors to this volume enter into a dialogue with substantial parts of the theological output of Denis Edwards In the process they capture something of his humanity his love of creation and his concern for our common home The book demonstrates the commitment Denis Edwards had to a theology that is truly ecumenical and always learning from the insights of others The editors and authors have done a great service in helping many others to deepen reflection on Denis Edwards contribution to our understanding of God and the natural world
