FONTAINE, 2013-09-11 Substance, integrity, and selfless love abound in the North Georgia mountains. Dr. Clarence Drummond, a well-respected minister, expressed it best: Silvia has written a masterpiece. In the depiction of her characters and this story, she has plumbed the depths of human depravity and reached the heights of human nobility. He predicts that MT will do more to transform Christian faith than has all the preaching that has ever been done here. Unlike the ridiculous Hollywood portrayal of mountain people as uneducated and bootleggers, Fontaine paints a realistic picture of an almost forgotten moment in the 1930s and 1940s, before the invasion of the electronic age. Through the intense love and heartache of the main character, Latrelle, comes alive as she matures from a young farm girl into an intelligent, insightful woman. The Firefox of Anyëa - Book One of The Soulfire Saga of Tabitha Moon Essenne Fleet, 2012-01-01 It seemed like such a small difference. So harmless Tabitha Moon possesses an astonishing, though inhuman, feature that sets her far apart from everyone else. Yet whilst truly remarkable to look upon, she feels that her appearance is also the wellspring of her loneliness, a burden that only ever seems to attract stares, cruel words, intimidation, and even harm. So Tabitha hides and dreams of release from her torment, completely unaware that she has an ancient ancestry founded far from the unhappy place she grudgingly calls home. Nor is she aware that the mysterious lineage is not only responsible for how she looks, but also for an incredibly powerful gift she has unknowingly inherited from them. Then one night, without warning, everything changes. Ignited by a particularly violent and cowardly attack upon her, Tabitha's latent arcane power erupts into life from deep within, and with it, a bizarre yet wondrous entity also awakens. Olive Blake's Good Work John Cordy Jeaffreson, 1864 Nineteenth-Century Fiction and the Production of Bloomsbury Matthew Ingleby, 2018-11-05 This study explores the role of fiction in the social production of the West Central district of London in the nineteenth century It tells a new history of the novel from a local geographical perspective tracing developments in the form as it engaged with Bloomsbury in the period it emerged as the city's dominant literary zone A neighbourhood that was subject simultaneously to socio economic decline and cultural ascent fiction set in Bloomsbury is shown to have reconceived the area's marginality as potential autonomy Drawing on sociological theory this book critically historicizes Bloomsbury's trajectory to show that its association with the intellectual fraction known as the Bloomsbury Group at the beginning of the twentieth century was symptomatic rather than exceptional From the 1820s onwards writers positioned themselves socially within the metropolitan geography they projected through their fiction As Bloomsbury became increasingly identified with the cultural capital of writers rather than the economic capital of established wealth writers subtly affiliated themselves with the area and the figure of the writer and Bloomsbury became symbolically conflated
