

A romantic scene of a couple holding hands over a body of water at sunset. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, oranges, and blues, with the sun's glow reflecting on the water's surface. The couple's hands are the central focus, with their forearms extending from the top corners towards the center. The overall mood is peaceful and intimate.

Strengthening Families and Ending Abuse Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, Victoria Fahlberg, 2013-06-04

Strengthening families of different varieties and ending abuse in the myriad of forms through which it surfaces is God's way of bringing peace and safety to Christian homes across the world We challenge congregations their leaders and the men women and youth who faithfully support them to consider their personal role in bringing this vision inspired by the Scriptures into reality Together our voices can be strong We are united in our belief that every home should be a safe home every home a shelter from the storms of life every home a place where we are supported treated with respect and dignity and every home a place where men and women are encouraged to be all they can be It is a tall order It is a dream to guide our personal conduct and to measure our congregational and community life We are far from reaching this goal but toward it we strive

Embodied Memory Anat Feinberg, 1999 In Embodied Memory Anat Feinberg offers the first English language study of the controversial dramatist George Tabori A Jewish Hungarian playwright and novelist Tabori is a unique figure in postwar German theatre one of the few theatre people since Bertolt Brecht to embody the ideal union of playwright director theatre manager and actor Revered as a theatre guru Tabori's career first in the United States and later in Germany is fraught with controversy

Maori Boy Witi Ihimaera, 2014-11-07 This is the first volume of Witi Ihimaera's enthralling award winning memoir packed with stories from the formative years of this much loved writer Witi Ihimaera is a consummate storyteller one critic calling him one of our finest and most memorable Some of his best stories however are about his own life This honest stirring work tells of the family and community into which Ihimaera was born of his early life in rural New Zealand of family secrets of facing anguish and challenges and of laughter and love As Ihimaera recounts the myths that formed his early imagination he also reveals the experiences from real life that wriggled into his fiction Alive with an inventive stimulating narrative and vividly portrayed relatives this memoir is engrossing entertaining and moving but more than this it is also a vital record of what it means to grow up Maori Winner of the Ockham New Zealand Book Award 2016 for the General Non Fiction category
