Adult Learning in the Social Context Peter Jarvis, 2012 This book is a logical progression from The Sociology of Adult and Continuing Education The author takes a completely new approach to the subject and puts forward a model of adult learning which is analysed in depth This model arises from the results of a research project in which adults analysed their own learning experiences

CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS IN AFRICAN EDUCATION SYSTEMS SOJI ONI (Ph.D.), 2013 Challenges and Prospects in African Education System The general idea this book is trying to disseminate is to inform readers about the compelling challenges and prospects in African system of education As we all know when issues of Africa educational system is raised the first set of thoughts that come to mind is decline in standard deterioration of facilities examination malpractices cult crises or school based violence shortage of teachers underqualified teachers and poor teachers performance which results in poor learning standards lack of classroom discipline that is exacerbated by insufficient resources and inadequate infrastructure failure of appropriate inspection and monitoring and confusion caused by changing curricula without proper communication and training All these have led to massive demoralization and disillusionment among teachers and a negative and worsening perception of African system of education This therefore calls for in depth analysis aimed at tutoring every stakeholder in education on how their action and inactions have individually and collectively contributed to the collapsing state of education in Africa However the prospect is that Africa s recovery and sustainable development can only be guaranteed through expansion and sustenance of both quantitative and qualitative of the continent s stock of human capital through education In order for education to realize its key role in development it must be provided to the younger segments of African society as quickly as human and financial resources permit with the ultimate goal of developing a comprehensive meaningful and sustainable system of education at all levels and for all age groups This is the message that this book puts across in the six knitted sections

Africa and the Sustainable Development Goals Maano Ramutsindela,David Mickler,2019-06-13 The book draws upon the expertise and international research collaborations forged by the Worldwide Universities Network Global Africa Group to critically engage with the intersection in theory and practice of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and Africa s development agendas and needs Further it argues that and demonstrates how the SDGs should be understood as an aspirational blueprint for development with multiple meanings that are situated in dynamic and contested terrains As the SDGs have substantial implications for development policy and resourcing at both the macro and micro levels their relevance is not only context specific but should also be assessed in terms of the aspirations and needs of ordinary citizens across the continent Drawing on analyses and evidence from both the natural and social sciences the book demonstrates that progress towards the SDGs must meet demands for improving human well being under diverse andchallenging socio economic political and environmental conditions Examples include those from the mining industry public health employment and the media In closing it highlights how international collaboration in the form of research networks can enhance the production of critical knowledge on and engagement with the SDGs in Africa

Community-based Research with Vulnerable Populations Lesley Wood,2022-01-01 This book advocates for community based research with vulnerable populations within the field of higher education The chapters outline how research can democratize knowledge generation to make it more accessible and socially relevant and emphasizes the value of the lived and experiential knowledge of vulnerable and marginalized populations Rooted in a critique of the current practices of higher education that fail to support participatory and transformative research the research is structured at micro macro and meso levels to ultimately emancipate colonized thinking of stakeholders about power privilege and participation Focusing primarily on various contexts within the Global South the contributors argue that the time is ripe for community based research which combines the theoretical knowledge of the academy with the local experiential knowledge of those experiencing the consequences of social inequality to co construct knowledge for change The Coming African Hour Luc Sindjoun,2010 The Coming African hour is not a slogan nor wishful thinking It is a conclusion that derives from an insightful analysis of the current situation pertaining on the continent Several African scholars coming from different regions and academic backgrounds are elaborating ideas and arguments in order to explain the constraints and to illustrate the opportunities The result of that scientific gathering is a book that synthesizes and renews the reflections on development What is at stake is not to be pessimistic or optimistic about Africa The epistemological challenge is to understand what is going on By focusing on converging and diverging African realities on the issues of state civil society gender and development strategies the authors of the book show under which conditions the African hour is coming At that level the commitment for political science meets the commitment for Africa The main success of this book is to overcome the preconceived ideas and self fulfilling prophecies about Africa Here the analysis avoids the trap of indulgence then hope is based on truth Consequently the coming African hour is not inescapable it is as analyzed a possibility that its achievement depends on institutional human political social and economic factors
