The Stanner June 24:

Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1890 Annual Report of the Adjutant-General New York (State). Adjutant General's Office, 1890 Vols for 1895 include Official register of the land and naval forces of the state of New York 1895 A Cautious Silence Geoffrey G. Gray, 2007 This is the first exploration of modern Australian social anthropology which examines the forces that helped shaped its formation In his new work Geoffrey Gray reveals the struggle to establish and consolidate anthropology in Australia as an academic discipline He argues that to do so anthropologists had to demonstrate that their discipline was the predominant interpreter of Indigenous life Thus they were able and called on to assist government in the control development and advancement of Indigenous peoples Gray aims to help us understand the present organisational structures and assist in the formulation of anthropology s future role in Australia to provide a wider political and social context for Australian social anthropology and to consider the importance of anthropology as a past definer of Indigenous people Gray s work complements and adds to earlier publications Wolfe s Settler Colonialism and the Transformation of Anthropology McGregor s Imagined Destinies and Anderson s Cultivating Whiteness Chicanery Geoffrey Gray, Doug Munro, Christine Winter, 2023-05-12 Academic appointments can bring forth unexpected and unforeseen contests and tensions cause humiliation and embarrassment for unsuccessful applicants and reveal unexpected allies and enemies It is also a time when harsh assessments can be made about colleagues intellectual abilities and their capacity as a scholar and fieldworker The assessors reports were often disturbingly personal laying bare their likes and dislikes that could determine the futures of peers and colleagues Chicanery deals with how the founding Chairs at Sydney the Australian National University Auckland and Western Australia dealt with this process and includes accounts of the appointments of influential anthropologists such as Raymond Firth and Alexander Ratcliffe Brown

The Publications of the Harleian Society Harleian Society, 1882 Anthropologists and Their Traditions Across National Borders Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2014-11-01 Volume 8 of the Histories of Anthropology Annual series the premier series published in the history of the discipline explores national anthropological traditions in Britain the United States and Europe and follows them into postnational contexts Contributors reassess the major theorists in twentieth century anthropology including the work of luminaries such as Franz Boas Claude L vi Strauss Bronis aw Malinowski A R Radcliffe Brown and Marshall Sahlins as well as lesser known but important anthropological work by Berthold Laufer A M Hocart Kenelm O L Burridge and Robin Ridington among others These essays examine myriad themes such as the pedagogical context of the anthropologist as a teller of stories about indigenous storytellers the colonial context of British anthropological theory and its projects outside the nation state the legacies of Claude L vi Strauss s structuralism regarding culture specific patterns cognitive universals reflected in empirical examples of kinship myth language classificatory systems and supposed universal mental structures and the career of Marshall Sahlins and his trajectory from neo evolutionism and structuralism toward an epistemological skepticism of cross cultural miscommunication No Small Change Frank Brennan, 2015-05-01 In 1967 Australians voted overwhelmingly in favor of removing from the Constitution two references that discriminated against Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people Though these seemed like small amendments they were an impetus for real change from terra nullius to land rights and from assimilation to self determination Nearly 50 years later there is a groundswell of support for our Indigenous heritage to be formally recognized in the Constitution With the prospect of a new referendum in the near future Frank Brennan considers how far Australians have come and yet how much work lies ahead He looks through the prism of history to examine what we can learn from our successes and failures since 1967 from the efforts of the Council of Aboriginal Affairs to the Gove land rights case and the Aboriginal Tent Embassy He also assesses the way forward how the upcoming referendum might provide fresh momentum for governments and Indigenous Australians to negotiate better outcomes Written by one of the most respected commentators on legal and human rights issues this book makes a vital contribution to the understanding of Indigenous affairs It will generate crucial debate on how Australians should acknowledge the history that for too long has gone unrecognized The Law Times ,1848 Canal Record ,1915

Today We're Alive Linden Wilkinson, 2016-04-26 By 1888 after 100 years of colonisation it is estimated that 95% of the Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait islander population had disappeared Along with starvation disease dispossession and grief a further contributing factor to this decline was murder Massacres occurred sequentially as the line of first contact forged its way across a country that had been occupied cared for and loved for over 50 000 years by about 250 separate Aboriginal nations The concomitant brutality subsumed in the colonial narrative of zeal purpose and prosperity meant that massacres were shrouded in silence for generations denied ignored and under reported However one particular massacre remains an anomaly The massacre at Myall Creek occurred on June 10th 1838 in the fading light of a wintry Sunday afternoon It was perpetrated by eleven convicts under the leadership of one free born squatter s son they had hunted blacks together before They tethered twenty eight old men women and children Weraera people of the Kamilaroi nation led them away from their camp and then systematically butchered them all These details are available because this particular massacre went to trial One hundred and sixty two years later a group of Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people formed a committee and built a memorial to commemorate the only massacre in Australia s colonial history where some but not all of the perpetrators were punished Today We re Alive Generating Performance in a Cross Cultural Context an Australian Experience is a doctoral thesis which examines the multiple narratives embedded in colonial and recent history At the heart of this research is a verbatim play the interweaving of Aboriginal and non Aboriginal testimonies about Myall Creek and the memorial testimonies sourced from descendants of massacre survivors descendants of massacre perpetrators and involved others As a thesis it explores the possibilities offered by performance ethnography as a decolonizing methodology as a play the research seeks to find a reconciliation narrative a story that through performance addresses the past and recognises the possibilities of a shared future The Robert Bellah Reader Robert N. Bellah,2006-10-09 A collection of twenty eight of the seminal essays of Robert N Bellah a visionary leader in the social study of religion and lead author of the bestselling Habits of the Heart The Jurist ,1849 Obligated to be Difficult Tim Rowse,2000-04-03 Since the 1967 constitutional referendum Australian governments have moved towards policies of indigenous self determination Obligated to be Difficult first published in 2000 presents the central issue of self determination as seen by Dr H C Coombs the most important policy maker since the referendum through what political mechanisms will indigenous Australians find their own voice Coombs was singularly influential within government in the years 1967 to 1976 and he remained a tireless critic and policy advocate from 1977 to 1996 Rowse s narrative of his work drawing on many unpublished sources illuminates the interplay of government policy with indigenous practice This book is both an account of government policies and a biographical slice of an outstanding Australian In attempting a critical celebration of Coombs vision and methods it invites informed reflection on the issues of land rights sovereignty and reconciliation in these conservative and highly anxious times Panama Canal Record ,1915

The London Gazette Great Britain,1848 Votes & Proceedings New South Wales. Parliament. Legislative Council,1864 Rethinking Secularism Craig Calhoun,Mark Juergensmeyer,Jonathan VanAntwerpen,2011-08-12 This collection of essays examines how the secular is constituted and understood and how new understandings of secularism and religion shape analytic perspectives in the social sciences politics and international affairs Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1849
